HEAVY RAIN COMES TO HALT FURY OF FIRE IN BOW VALLEY

No Lives Lost, but Thousands of Livestock and Much Other Property Destroyed—Children Rescued in Nick of Time as Flames Sweep On Their Way Towards Schoolhouse

CALGARY, Nov. 19 (P).—Forest flames, which spread across 100,000 acres of ranchlands in the brush-covered foothills of the Bow River Valley, were under control tonight. Heavy rain halted the fires. Two hundred fire fighters stood guard.

No loss of life was reported; all ranchers and their families escaped injury but there was a loss of thousands of dollars in property and livestock.

Fanned by a gale, which at times reached a velocity of sixty miles an hour, the fires, in the Cochrane district, twenty-five miles west of here, swept across a dozen large ranches. Tonight, seven ranch homes had been destroyed, along with stables and corrals. At other ranches, homes escaped but out-buildings were destroyed, livestock lost, and thousands of tons of winter feed left a smoking mass.

HOMELESS TAKE REFUGE
In the hamlet of Cochrane, the homeless sought refuge tonight. Families were reunited and plans made to return to their homes tomorrow, ready to start afresh where fire had laid waste to their lands.

Backed from the main highway by a barrier of flame and smoke, a school teacher and three of her pupils escaped forest fire in the Cochrane district and reached the safety of Calgary late today. They had been unreported for several hours.

In her own automobile, Miss Grace Davis, teacher at Brushy Ridge School, near Cochrane, drove to the old Banff Coach Road, away from the flames, and into Calgary. Her schoolhouse was destroyed.

OIL PROPERTIES MAY BE SEIZED

Industrialists Fear Confiscation of Holdings May Follow Strike in Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 19 (P).—Industrialists expressed fear tonight that a scheduled strike in the oil fields, coupled with new legislation authorizing distribution of private wealth, might entail the confiscation of property to be operated by labor groups.

The oil strike was set for November 20 after employers refused demands for labor reform, including wage increases and a ten-week vacation with pay.

The wealth distribution legislation was passed last night by the Mexican Legislature and is similar to the already effective agrarian reform laws, under which large ranches have been broken into small farms and allotted to workers.

PROPERTY MIGHT BE SEIZED
One executive of a large oil company pointed to the agrarian reform law to support his contention the Government might give a "revolutionary" interpretation to the new wealth distribution law and turn over oil properties to workers to be operated "for the common good" if a strike in the industry lasted over a long period.

Businessmen added their concern to that of the oil operators in the belief owner properties might be taken over by worker classes. The formality of signature by President Lázaro Cárdenas was all that remained to make the new legislation a law.

Pauline Trapped And Captive Again

VANCOUVER, Nov. 19 (P).—Pauline, the University of British Columbia's truant monkey who Tuesday caused radio police cars to race through a Vancouver residential district, is back in her cage today.

Pauline was captured yesterday afternoon in a box trap set by police officers and Inspector George Hood of the humane society. Earlier the officers had matched their abilities as tree-climbers with the tiny animal without success.

CLAMOR FOR WAR ACTION

Chinese Campaign for Defence Against Reported Japanese Invasion

SHANGHAI, Nov. 19 (P).—Chinese patriots clamored for militant action tonight in a campaign to raise funds for the defence of Northern Suiyuan Province against a reported Japanese invasion.

Feeling was pitched close to wartime fervor, following Chinese newspaper reports that defenders of the eastern border had taken the offensive and inflicted a severe setback on the invaders.

Although these dispatches were contradicted by other news from Kalgan and Kweiwei, which said the danger zone was quiet for the moment, cheering Chinese demonstrated throughout the city.

"Support Suiyuan!" was the cry.

APPEAL FOR FUNDS
Orators exhorted citizens to contribute funds for the defence and sought to stir up a national patriotism. Large sums of money were reported pouring in, along with "home comforts" to be distributed to soldiers at the front.

Representatives of Peiping citizens reached Kweiwei, it was announced today, and assured Suiyuan authorities "North China is supporting you and opposing the latest Japanese threat."

Kaigan advised reported that an attempt to sever the Peiping-Suiyuan Railway by dynamiting a bridge twenty-five miles west of Kalgan had been frustrated. Heavy patrols were dispatched along the right of way and guards on trains were increased in number. Garrisons in the area also were strengthened.

ACCIDENT STARTS RUMOR OF PEACE

Whistle Sticks and Resultant Noise Leads to Relief Maritime Strike Settled

SEATTLE, Nov. 19 (P).—A ferry whistle "stuck" here today and its long and blaring howling started a rumor away down on Grays Harbor the maritime strike had been settled. Not only that, but in the exchange of excited telephone calls, the confusion became so confused until Seattle shippers heard that whistles were blowing at Aberdeen in celebration of a strike truce, and Aberdeen shippers heard there was merrymaking on Seattle's waterfront because of a similar armistice. Investigation disclosed there was no armistice, no celebration, only a ferryboat whistle in need of repairs.

Fixed Royalties on B.C. Timber Assured Logging Operators

Province Withdraws Reforestation Section in Amended Bill, Changes Retiring Limits on Board and Arranges Prorogation

PROROGATION at 3 p.m. today was arranged by party whips yesterday, as the Eighteenth Legislature pressed on towards a close of its fourth session in multiple sittings. The Government suddenly amended a measure to change the Forest Act, providing for present day royalties up to January 1, 1939, (a year's extension of existing agreement) and withdrawing entirely a statutory plan to regulate reforestation on Crown grant timber lands.

The Victoria City Bill was approved with other legislation as promised. The New Westminster measure passed after sharp debate and a division of twenty-nine to eleven in favor of the bill, with Dugald McPherson, acting chairman of the Liberal caucus, voting against the measure. The Govern-

Making Stout Resistance to Insurgents

Above is shown the heart of Madrid, to which the Fascist forces have not yet penetrated. While the city has been made a horror-stricken scene by bombardment from the air and artillery fire, the Government forces appear to be successful in preventing any but a small foothold in the outskirts of the Spanish capital.

Authorizes Compulsory Interest Cut if Majority Of Bondholders Agrees

Amendment to Municipal Act Will Allow Drastic Methods Of Refunding

CHANGES BEING MADE IN MARKETING ACT

CLIMAXING a session of forced marches in multiple sittings daily for the last two weeks, the Provincial Government brought down last-minute bills in the Legislature yesterday to extend the terms of the Gray refunding proposals to all municipalities, and to hand still more authority to provincial marketing boards.

Introduced in amendments to the Municipal Act late yesterday afternoon, the refunding clauses were given second reading and completed in committee before midnight, with unprinted amendments inserted en route. Amendments to the Natural Products Marketing Act (1936) entered the House first at 11:45 p.m., and by suspension of the rules were carried to approval stages.

BLANKET REFUNDING BILL
The refunding sections of the Municipal Act, which by concurrent amendment to the Vancouver Enabling Act will include that city, offer Provincial consent for the refunding of municipal debts where 51 per cent by value of the bondholders agree, and where 49 per cent by number.

Wins Award From Officer For Assault

VANCOUVER, Nov. 19 (P).—Albert Hilton Johnson, Vancouver sawyer, was awarded $150 damages against Constable Kenneth Harrison by Mr. Justice Fisher in Supreme Court today for assault.

Evidence at the trial disclosed that Constable Harrison, struck Johnson in the face after the latter had used abusive language to the officer. Mr. Justice Fisher ruled there had been an assault by the officer.

Thousand Japanese Perish in Flood When Reservoir Bursts

TOKIO, Nov. 20 (P).—More than 1,000 lives were feared lost today when the banks of a reservoir in Akita prefecture collapsed, releasing a poisonous flood. The whole town at the Osarusawa Copper Mine, below the dam, appeared to have been washed away.

The muddy torrent contained poisonous copper sulphide solution. There were only eighteen known survivors. About 300 corpses were found and the rest of the population of about 1,200 was missing.

Marketing Probe Reaches Impasse Over Procedures

Arrest of Four Chinese Witnesses Demanded and Retracted—Subpoenaed Witnesses Were Not Given Traveling Fares, It Develops—Island Member Soothes Sharp Clash

SITTING in on two stormy sittings yesterday, the Legislative committee on agriculture decided in the morning to ask the House for the arrest of four Chinese witnesses, rescinded that in the light of further information in the afternoon, and agreed, finally, to meet this morning at 9 o'clock, when the witnesses will be expected to appear before what may be the final sitting of the probe on agricultural marketing.

LARGE GIFT OF SAND RECEIVED

Acting Mayor Announces 770 Tons Will Be Used at Gorge and in Parks

Through efforts of Acting Mayor James Adam, Rittell Consolidated, Limited, and Balfour Guthrie & Company, Vancouver, 770 tons of Belgian silver sand off St. Wyoming have been secured free for use of the city.

The sand was originally consigned to a Los Angeles glass factory, but waterfront trouble prevented unloading. It will be taken off the vessel this morning and is valued at $6,930.

Victoria—Saanchi beaches and parks committee will place two scoowloads of the sand on the beach of the public bathing house at the Gorge, the acting mayor stated. The balance will be used for children's sand pits at Beacon Hill, Hollywood, David Spencer, Stadacona and Victoria West Parks.

WINS ANOTHER PRIZE

TORONTO, Nov. 19 (P).—Herman Trele of Wembley, Alta., former world wheat king, won the Royal Winter Fair Silver Trophy for best half-bushel of wheat. It was announced today. His entry was one of hard red spring wheat.

GIRL SKATER DROWNED

CAMPBELLTON, N.B., Nov. 19 (P).—Jennette Grenier, sixteen, and her nine-year-old sister, Theresa, drowned in a pond near here yesterday after breaking through the ice while skating.

Hawaiian Governor Sends Appeal for Food and Supplies

HONOLULU, Nov. 19 (P).—Governor Joseph B. Poindexter today telegraphed a request to the Department of the Interior to dispatch a vessel laden with food and supplies to Hawaii to relieve an "alarming situation" caused by the maritime strike called September 28. The Governor acted after conferring with army, navy and civil authorities.

HOME AFTER SEA BATTLE

Ss. Anyox Reports Thrilling Struggle in Effort to Save Fuel Barge

Part of the intense sea drama which was enacted on the West Coast of Vancouver Island last Tuesday night was retold here last evening when the Ss. Anyox returned to her home port. The climax of the spectacle will be unfolded on the arrival of the Ss. Salvage King at Yarrrows plant, Esquimalt, early this morning, with the men who were on the drifting barge aboard.

Looking little the worse for her thrilling battle with West Coast seas after the towline parted southwest of Nootka at 4 p.m. Tuesday, and sent the fuel barge adrift, the Island Tug & Barge Company's major towing unit tied up alongside the company's dock in the Inner Harbor shortly after 7 p.m.

SIGNS OF BUFFETING
The members of the crew, while the ship had some strained deck-coupling, twisted ventilators and partially destroyed aerials to show for her experience, were evidently tired as they told about weary hours fighting the elements. They were not very enthusiastic about the parts they had to play in the piece, especially those scenes following the immediate breaking of the towline, when they were making frantic efforts to get a line aboard the barge, so that they could remove the three occupants. When these efforts at length seemed fruitless, the proximity of what they realized were wide areas of breakers forced them to abandon the barge and try to work the Anyox offshore and save the ship as well as those aboard her.

HARD TO DO
Captain P. H. Cole stated that leaving the Dunsmuir was the hardest thing he had ever been called upon to do; but with seventeen men to be responsible for the Anyox, he felt that he would not be justified in jeopardizing so many lives in what looked like a losing attempt to save the three men on the barge when both ships were apparently Continued on Page 3, Column 4

Many Rabbits Perish When Fire Spreads

COCHRANE, Alta., Nov. 19 (P).—Dozens of white rabbits, some of them scorched to a deep brown by the flames, dashed madly over the prairie in the Bow River Valley forest fire area today.

Trying to escape fast approaching flames, the little animals bounded high in the air as their pads touched the hot, baking ground. Many died in the flames.

The King Promises Aid for Residents Of Depressed Areas

His Majesty Assures Subjects in South Wales They Will Not Be Forgotten—Completes Two-Day Tour of Mining Sections

LONDON, Nov. 19 (P).—In a message to the Lords Lieutenant of Glamorganshire and Monmouthshire tonight the King urged the people of the depressed areas of South Wales "not to lose heart" and rest assured "their troubles are not forgotten."

Returning to London after a two-day tour of the region, His Majesty asked that "sincere appreciation" be conveyed to the county constabulary and all others concerned for the excellent arrangements made for the visit.

The King said he had been greatly touched by the warmth of the wel-

Great Britain Preparing to Insure Freedom of Passage for Her Ships—France Sends Men Of War to Catalan Waters—Mussolini Orders Speeding of Armaments

Government Forces Claim Victory in Air and on Foot

LONDON, Nov. 19 (P).—Great Britain prepared today to insure freedom of passage for her ships in Spanish waters, while Foreign Secretary Eden told the House of Commons he considered there were other Governments more blameworthy than those of Italy and Germany for violations of the hands off Spain pact.

Aroused by Opposition jibes, Eden said: "As far as non-intervention is concerned I can say categorically that I think there are other Governments more to blame than those of Italy and Germany."

His statement, which some members took to be a veiled thrust at Russia, threw the House into an uproar. Cheers from the Government benches mingled with cries of "Shame! Shame!" from the Labor M.P.s.

Eden ignored subsequent heckling and avoided further definition of the "other governments."

THREE BIG QUESTIONS
The three questions which occupied most of the parliamentary debate today were the status of British shipping in the Mediterranean in the face of General Francisco Franco's reported warning of a blockade; the future of the non-intervention committee, said possible joint action by Britain and France to maintain freedom of the seas.

Officially the British Government announced it had not received details of the reported Spanish Fascist blockade of ports, but informed sources expected the Government to issue a warning that force would be used, if necessary, to protect British merchantmen.

Early in the civil war Britain warned she would retaliate if her vessels were attacked by belligerents.

"Will British ships be protected if they are taking goods to Barcelona (held by the Madrid Government)?" Eden was asked from the floor.

FOLLOW THE RULES
"The rules which normally govern international action in these matters will be pursued by His Majesty's ships in the defence of legitimate British interests," Eden replied.

Turning to Italian and German recognition of the Spanish Fascist cause, Eden said he saw no reason why the action should invalidate the work of the non-intervention committee.

FINANCES ARE BEST IN YEARS

Saanchi in Healthy Condition, Ten Months' Statement Shows

In the first ten months of 1936 Saanchi finances were in better condition than in the past five years, Mayor W. W. Crouth told the municipal council, last night, when presenting a detailed statement prepared by Wilfred A. Greene, municipal accountant.

At the end of October a balance of $14,467 was in the bank, the council was told, the surplus would be increased by the end of the year.

OVERDRAFT PAID
The annual overdraft at the bank, amounting to $170,000, was fully paid off on October 10, and no further borrowings will be necessary to meet present estimated expenditures to December 31, the report to the council indicated.

Percentage of tax collections, at October 31, were 82.29 per cent, compared with 80.57 per cent at the same time in 1935. The estimated collection of 83 per cent will be surpassed before the year end is Continued on Page 2, Column 4

HALIBUT SHIP UNDER ARREST

Seattle Vessel Detained by Canadian Fishery Patrol Off Port San Juan

Alleged to have been making a last net before proceeding to his home port, the fifty-foot halibut pecker Forward, Captain M. Jacobson, was detained by officers of the Canadian Government fishery patrol ship Malaspina shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, five miles southwest of Port San Juan. The vessel was reported to have 18,000 cod on board. Second Officer J. M. Richardson and Seaman A. L. Murray were put on board and the ship was brought into Esquimalt at midnight last night.

The Forward was bound for Seattle after a ten days' fishing cruise on the West Coast of the Island. The position where the detention occurred was said to be about a mile inside the boundary Captain Walter Bedford was commanding the Malaspina.

FIRE RAZES PIER IN PHILADELPHIA

Two Ships Narrowly Escape Destruction in $1,000,000 Blaze—Glaze Seen for Miles

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 19 (P).—Fire destroyed a Delaware River pier tonight, spreading so rapidly two ships barely cast off in time to avoid being damaged. Fire Marshal Harry Ebbel estimated the loss at more than $1,000,000.

The glare from the blazing pier could be seen for miles along the Delaware River in South Jersey and smoke from burning merchandise on the pier billowed over the waterfront and drifted east over Camden.

Albert Smith, pier watchman, said a spark from a nearby bonfire might have ignited the structure, which is owned by the Pennsylvania Railroad.

No Nation Ready to Take Responsibility Of Starting Conflict

Viscount Halifax Tells House of Lords Great Britain Wants to Be Friend of All—Government Not Blind to Dangers

LONDON, Nov. 19 (CP-Havas).—No country today is prepared either to carry on a war or to take responsibility for it, Viscount Halifax, Lord Privy Seal, declared to the House of Lords tonight.

"The Government are not by any means blind to the dangers in the world," said Lord Halifax, "especially those which arise from the clash of sharply conflicting ideologies in Europe."

"But by applying the best judgment His Majesty's Government can, by putting the matter on its lowest grounds of self interest, they do not believe any country today is prepared—much less more anxious—to take responsibility of letting loose war that may spread through Europe and beyond it."

FRIENDS WITH ALL

"So far as we are concerned, we mean what we say. We will be friends with all nations and we believe that other nations sincerely desire to establish friendly relations with ourselves. The Government do not underestimate either the difficulty or the urgency of the task before them and they are applying themselves to it with energy."

The upper chamber's debate on defence and foreign policy concluded with Lord Halifax's speech. A four-power European defence pact was urged by Lord Rennie, former ambassador to Rome, who said Britain, France, Germany and Italy should stand together, "subversive forces" both in Europe and in the Far East.

FREEDOM OF CHANNEL

"Obviously in the major issues, the logic of things as they are makes it imperative that France and ourselves should stand together," said Lord Rennie. "Freedom of the channel is indispensable to both of us, and we could not ourselves regard with any indifference a menace to the security of our nearest neighbor."

In the course of yesterday's foreign affairs debate in the House of Lords, Earl Stanhope, first commissioner of works and a former under-secretary for foreign affairs, dropped what was interpreted as a first hint from the Government that conscription may become a necessity.

IN GRAVE DANGER

"I am bound to admit," said Lord Stanhope, "that under the present conditions of service, the voluntary system obviously is in grave danger. The regular army, he said, was falling below strength as new enlistments fell short of requirements, while the new infantry supplementary reserve, recruiting for which began September 1, had obtained only 850 men of the 17,000 called for under the scheme."

BLOCKADE THREAT

NEW APPREHENSION

Lord Plymouth, chairman of the group, was reported ready to call a meeting of the sub-committee on Monday to discuss stationing neutral observers in Spain to prevent shipments of arms reaching either belligerent.

Seek Return to City School Board

TRUSTEE W. C. MOREBY, K.C.

TRUSTEE MRS. D. L. MACLAURIN

TRUSTEE PERCY E. GEORGE

All three School Trustees above announce they will seek re-election to the city School Board for two-year terms. Trustee Moreby has been a member of the board for twelve years and chairman for the past two years. He said there was only a slight possibility that he would not be a candidate. Trustee Mrs. MacLaurin was elected to the board in December, 1934. Trustee George has served six years on the board.

themselves in readiness to supply arms to Franco.

LOOK FOR CO-OPERATION

"We look for the co-operation of all Governments concerned, irrespective of the ideology they may pursue," he said.

Informed sources said the British move might be a warning to General Franco to keep away from British ships.

REPLIES WITH WARSHIPS

PARIS, Nov. 19 (AP).—France replied with warships tonight to a reported Spanish insurgent threat to blockade the port of Barcelona against all governments sympathetic with the Madrid regime.

Informed sources said Premier Blum's Government answered the Fascist pronouncement of a blockade by ordering two warships to stand off Barcelona to protect French shipping.

The cruiser Duplex and the destroyer Albatross, it was said, were dispatched to Catalan waters.

The French Mediterranean fleet of two battleships, five cruisers, thirteen destroyers and eight submarines was engaged in manoeuvres "somewhere" between Toulon and Perpignan—within a few hours of Barcelona.

SPEEDING ARMAMENTS

ROME, Nov. 19 (AP).—Premier Mussolini and his Fascist grand council today ordered speeding of air and naval armaments in case Italian aid German insurgents should bring serious international complications.

The accredited Italian chargé d'affaires, Filippo De Cypri, tonight was en route aboard an Italian warship to the seat of the provisional government of the insurgent General Francisco Franco.

European fears Italy and Germany might send direct aid to the forces of General Franco were scouted by competent Government sources.

There was no reason to believe, these sources said, the action in any way would affect Italy's position as a member of the London non-intervention committee.

A source authorized to speak for the Government said Italy did not expect a break with Soviet Russia.

CLAIM VICTORIES

MADRID, Nov. 19 (CP-Havas).—General Jose Miaja's defence council tonight claimed victories in the air and in University City, northwest of the capital.

While the Government flyers were bringing down six insurgent planes, Leftist artillery and infantry recaptured part of University City, an official communiqué said.

Reinforcements and new artillery took the offensive late this afternoon. Authorities said the San Christina asylum was surrounded and the insurgents inside it were trapped because the staircase had been destroyed by Government artillery.

Earlier in the day, insurgent bombs again struck in the heart of Madrid, partly wrecking the Post office, the Central Bank and an ornate palace, once the home of the Marquis of Linares.

SHRAPNEL TAKES TOLL

Crowds in the Postoffice were sliced down by shrapnel from the exploding bombs, and unestimated numbers were killed.

The front of the building was ripped apart, and windows shattered.

Two street cars were jerked into the air by the force of the explosion in Cibeles Square, near the Postoffice. A number of passengers were believed killed.

Diagonally across from the Postoffice, the Palace of the Marquis, more recently used as a Government barracks, was partially torn down by another bomb.

Still a third bomb, apparently aimed at the nearby War Ministry, crashed through several floors of the Central Bank, formerly the Banco del Rio de La Planta.

CLOSING THE RANGE

Insurgent leaders outside Madrid reported their forces had wheeled artillery within the city limits of Madrid to reply at closer range to Government shelling.

The horror of the two-week bombardment was plainly etched on the faces of weary Madrilenos as they surveyed the ruins of much of their once beautiful city.

Much of the business district was nothing but a smouldering pile of wreckage. Storefronts were crashed in, apartment houses were sliced in half. Everywhere there were begrimed knots of defenders poking about the ruins for bodies.

Death carts—by now a familiar sight in Madrid—rattled to and from the morgue all day. Weeping Madrilenos, whose relatives had not been accounted for, gathered in groups near the morgue, stocked with bodies uncounted.

FINANCES ARE BEST IN YEARS

reached, officials claimed. Total receipts for the ten months' period amounted to $380,526 as against $277,949 for the same time last year. Cash in the bank at October 31 was $20,129, while last year it was $11,335, an increase in 1936 of $8,794.

SHORTAGE OFFSET

While receipts from tax sale costs were below the estimate, it was stated the amount short was offset by tax sale purchases, which were $1,530 below the estimate. Total moneys already received, $380,526, together with those anticipated for November and December will total slightly over the estimate of $400,257 for the year.

Expenditures to October 31 amounted to $366,659, as compared with $371,615 last year. In 1935 the council borrowed $16,201 from the Provincial Government for relief, in addition to the quoted expenditure, and this year there had been no borrowing, the council was informed. Roads and bridges expenditure was over the estimate for the year by $1,638. This amount, together with possibly another $3,500 could be financed out of anticipated receipts, the report showed.

MEET INTEREST CHARGES

Interest was paid in full on all the corporation debentures, both outstanding and held up the sinking fund amounting to $42,950, while $4,186 was placed to the credit of sinking fund on account of annual installment.

Other items of expenditures were reported in accordance with estimates, and while a few were slightly over others will be sufficiently under to offset them. Over expenditures, in addition to the mentioned, would have to be carried forward into the 1937 estimates, it was stated.

HIGH IN PRAISE

Rece William Crouch and members of the council expressed satisfaction with the condition in which Saanich found itself at this time.

The report disclosed that general and school tax returns, for the ten months' period, were $171,259 against an estimate for the entire year of $178,300. Delinquent taxes paid totaled $26,353, on an estimate of $26,500. Arrears of taxes paid into the municipal treasury were $22,110, as compared with the year's estimate of $23,000.

On the expenditure side of the list, it was stated that Saanich paid $42,239 on roads and bridges, as compared with the estimate of $40,600. Unemployed relief for the ten months' period cost Saanich $19,698. The estimate for the year was $24,000.

Social service costs to Saanich to October 10 were $14,513 and the estimate for the year was $17,200. Police costs were set at $10,150 against the year's estimate of $12,463, while school board costs for the ten months' period were given as $68,415. School board estimates for the year were $82,369.

Seek Elimination Of War Profits

LONDON, Nov. 19 (CP-Havas).—The Autumn Assembly of the Church of England today adopted a motion stating it would welcome steps by the Government to eliminate profit from the manufacture and sale of munitions of war.

Nomination Papers Will Be Available On Monday Morning

NOMINATION papers for candidates aspiring to the office of mayor, five vacancies on the City Council and three on the school board will be available in the city clerk's office Monday morning. M. Frank Hunter, returning officer, announced yesterday.

The aldermen will be elected for two-year terms, the mayor for one year, and school trustees for two years. Nomination day will be December 3, followed by elections on December 10.

Electors will be asked if they are in favor of a two-year term for mayor.

Too Dusty to See to Shoot On the Ocean

SAN PEDRO, Calif., Nov. 19 (AP).—It was so dusty today on the ocean that coast guard cutters were unable to find their targets in practice firing, returning to port until visibility improved.

A thirty-two-mile-an-hour "Santa Ana" wind, blowing dust from the mountains far out to sea, disrupted the target schedule which will resume on Saturday—if there is no more dust.

Four Killed by Mine Explosion

WALDRON, Ark., Nov. 19 (AP).—A cutting machine explosion in the No. 1 mine of the Texas Coal Mining Company at Baldie, Ark., killed four men and seriously injured a fifth today.

SCHOONER GOES DOWN

PICTOU, N.S., Nov. 19 (AP).—The schooner Benny Lou, bound for New Glasgow, N.S., from Pictou, P.E.I., sprang a leak in the East River and sank today. Captain Dan MacDonald and the other seamen aboard escaped.

SEVERAL INJURED IN CLASH WITH FASCISTS

LONDON, Nov. 19 (CP-Havas).—Several persons were injured tonight, one of them seriously, when anti-Fascists clashed with members of Sir Oswald Mosley's Blackshirts, who were holding a meeting at their Leicester headquarters.

CONDEMNED TO DEATH

TENERIFFE, Canary Islands, Nov. 19 (CP-Havas).—The insurgent radio station here, announced tonight that a son of Premier Francisco Largo Caballero, held captive by the insurgent forces in Spain had been condemned to death.

NO ATTRACTION

May Be Cause of Recruiting Difficulty, Secretary for War Says

LONDON, Nov. 19 (AP).—Alfred Duff Cooper, Secretary for War, said today he thought the uniform a soldier has to wear might be partly responsible for the difficulties in recruiting.

The customary khaki, he said, at a recruiting luncheon, was neither pleasing to the eye nor was it connected with pleasant associations.

He said he believed the solution lay in granting men, both of the regular and territorial armies, a smart blue uniform, which some have now purchased for themselves and which they have been allowed to wear "walking out."

His greatest ambition in connection with the recruiting campaign was to be able to guarantee to every soldier leaving the army at the end of his period of service with a good character that "he would pass straight into a good job."

MINISTER IS HONORED

PARIS, Nov. 19 (CP-Havas).—The Canadian Minister to France, Hon. Philippe Roy, was honored tonight at a banquet in commemoration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his arrival here as Canada's representative.

"QUAKER"
BURN-OIL HEATERS
Here Today!

The moment you first see the "Quaker" Burnoil Heater in operation at this store you will be delighted with its smart, luxurious appearance. Many of the styles are finished in porcelain enamel to resemble finely-grained rubbed walnut, and in front there is a grille through which can be seen the cheery glow of fire. But it is the operating principle of the "Quaker" Burnoil Heater that is radically different. Without wicks or other movable parts it burns with a clean, noiseless orange flame. There is nothing to clean, nothing to go out of order. You get trouble-free heat from the moment it is installed in your home, and from that time onward you are free from the drudgery of coal, wood and ashes.

"QUAKER" BURN-OIL HEATERS ARE ATTRACTIVE IN DESIGN AND FINISH

There are half a dozen different sizes and styles of "Quaker" Burnoil Heaters, all of them designed to blend harmoniously with the environment of the modern home. While the oil flame burns with a bright orange flame, the heater itself is designed to radiate the heat to all corners of the home. Tell us the size of home area you wish to heat and we will point out the correct size to use.

Finance Minister of Province Maintains Confidence Restored

Hon. John Hart, Speaking at Liberal Association Meeting, Says Credit Standing of British Columbia Helping in Solution of Problems

REITERATING a belief that restoration of confidence of investors in the credit standing of British Columbia, during the last year, had gone a long way towards the solution of some of the Province's pressing problems, Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance, declared he was confident he would be minister long enough to see the credit of the Province the highest in the Dominion of Canada.

The minister was addressing the annual meeting of members of the Victoria Liberal Association at the Chamber of Commerce Auditorium last night. Mr. Hart said that with confidence no province could hope to succeed, and mentioned the situation in Alberta, due to lack of confidence. He maintained capital tioned, in particular, an addition of $750,000 to the Ottawa subsidy to British Columbia, and the promise by the present Prime Minister of the early appointment of a Royal Commission to hear British Columbia's case.

"I am confident," he said, "that when the report of that commission is made, it will be favorable to us."

FINANCIAL MATTERS

Mr. Hart, who had left a session of the Legislature to address the meeting, spoke briefly of financial matters, dealing particularly with the situation faced by the Liberal administration when it assumed office in 1933, and reviewed some of the negotiations with Ottawa for financial assistance, and how the bond issues were retired in February and May of this year.

He also mentioned assistance given to municipalities by relieving them of social service costs, a reduction from 23 to 20 per cent in unemployment payments and grants for education. The Government, he said, was now classing indigents as unemployed and paying the costs.

ISLANDS POSITION

Byron Johnson, M.P., Victoria, was the only other speaker, and he spoke for a few minutes on administrative matters with a reference to the position of Vancouver Island and its claims for a better deal. He maintained the present Government was giving every consideration to the needs of the island, and that future public works programmes would include betterments for this section of the province.

He also touched on Federal matters, particularly the benefits he claimed had accrued from the lowering of tariffs.

BUSINESS SESSION

The general business of the meeting included the adoption of reports of the president, H. M. McGivern; the secretary, A. H. Cox, and treasurer, E. E. Heath. The election of officers resulted only one ballot, all other positions, with the exception of vice-president, having been filled by acclamation.

Two names were placed in nomination for vice-president, School Trustee John Wallace and Dr. Hugh Clarke, the former being elected by a close margin. The officers of the association now included: Honorary president, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Prime Minister; Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Premier of the Province; Honorary vice-president, Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance; president, H. M. McGivern; vice-president, John Wallace; secretary, A. H. Cox, and treasurer, E. E. Heath.

During the balloting, solos were sung by Miss Marie North, H. J. Applegate and Leonard Foster, with Miss Jessie Smith at the piano as the accompanist.

The Premier, who was to have been the chief speaker, sent his regrets. He was unable to attend on account of the sitting of the Legislature. About 300 delegates were in attendance from the various wards.

GOT LINE ABOARD

For three hours, Captain Cole stated the Anxox and the barge dived before the sea and sea, efforts being made all the while to get a rocket line from the towboat to the barge. The first attempt failed when the line uncoiling fouled and broke, the second near-success effort was shot too high and barely missed her; the third try being successful when another line was placed directly aboard the Dunsyre and made ready for sending across a heavy line to carry a breeches buoy. It was then that the perilous proximity of the breakers caused the Anxox to abandon the barge, all on board hoping she would drift by Cape Cook, which she eventually did. Captain Cole suggested that she probably passed between Solander Island and the mainland of Vancouver Island.

ST. JOSEPH, ISLE OF SORROWS

IN 1694 the Huron nation was almost exterminated by the Iroquois. The Huron survivors of the Iroquois massacres gathered under the care of the few remaining priests at the mission of St. Marie. Thousands of the destitute fugitives were baptised that year, and at this the Christians rejoiced even in the darkest hours of physical danger. But St. Marie, near the present Midland was deemed to be too open to Iroquois attack.

With great labor the French had built a small ship and a huge raft and in June they loaded all that could be moved. Accompanied by the Indian horde they set out for St. Joseph, a small island in Georgian Bay. Here skilled masons reared a second St. Marie, a little faith of the remaining Hurons, who had lost relatives, homes and the settlement ready to defend and country.

EUTHANASIA PROPOSAL IS UNDER FIRE

Bishop Condemns Plan for Mercy Killings as Characteristic of Savages

PROPOSED SAFEGUARDS ATTACKED BY ANALYST

LONDON, Nov. 19 (CP-Havas).—The bill to legalize mercy killings, proposed by Lord Ponsonby, Labor peer, came under fire from two quarters tonight, although the criticism in one case was based merely on the need for "adequate safeguards."

Dr. E. Edward Myers, Roman Catholic Bishop Auxiliary of Westminster, denounced the growing sentiment in favor of euthanasia. Speaking at a dinner of the Civil Service Catholic League, he declared "it runs counter to the whole tradition of the medical profession, even in pagan times."

Dr. G. R. Hoche, Home Office analyst, took a more lenient attitude, but declared euthanasia, even voluntary, is pregnant with criminal possibilities, and any act that is passed would have to have adequate safeguards.

Bishop Myers attacked the move to legalize mercy killings as "characteristic of a savage tribe."

NOW BEING PRACTISED

Dr. Lynch, on the other hand, declared to a meeting of the Hunterian Society—that euthanasia was currently being practised by doctors in Great Britain. He emphasized that it was not speaking in an official capacity, but asserted it was only logical to regulate the practice if it was regarded as necessary.

Lord Ponsonby's bill would define its own purpose because of its elaborate requirements, he added. As proposed by the peer, the patient must first formally apply for release from suffering. Two independent medical certificates must accompany this duly witnessed document to a referee. The referee must then visit the patient personally.

Then, in every case, euthanasia was ordered, it was proposed that an "administrator" visit the patient to administer the lethal drug.

"This means," Dr. Lynch said, "that the patient, having expressed his desire, must wait in an agony of suspense which might be likened to that of a condemned criminal for his actual release from life."

He insisted it would be more humane if the lethal drug were to be administered by the patient's personal physician, and without the sufferer's knowledge. He also cited the possibility that the drug might not act effectively in every case, asking "What more terrible thing could happen than for the patient to wake up again?"

Dr. Lynch professed himself unable to offer any constructive proposals toward providing the "adequate safeguards" he urged, and at the same time permit euthanasia to be practised legally on more humane lines.

Premier Pattullo announced that the Province had now agreed with the Dominion through Hon. Norman Rogers, to care for transients in British Columbia with $1,500,000 to be provided for the purpose in a temporary agreement lasting until March 31 next. Hon. G. R. Pearson amplified this to say that forest training camps and other efforts would be continued if present intentions could be carried out.

Attorney-General Sloan defended prices paid by the Liquor Control Board for beer, whisky and rum, saying these were lower than paid by control schemes south of the international border. He cited examples. Manufacture of beer by the Province would cost $15.34 a barrel and would prove of no advantage, he contended. The liquor board bought some whiskies for $11.75 a case net, compared with $14.50 for the same brands in Washington, and this result was extended to rum and other stocks, Mr. Sloan said. Wines were not mentioned.

MEMBER GREETED

The House accorded Dr. W. H. Sutherland, Liberal member for Revelstoke, and one of the two physicians in the Legislature, a hearty ovation on the occasion of his birthday. Premier Pattullo remarking that the member for Revelstoke had seen twenty continuous years in the Legislature. A huge basket of flowers was placed on Dr. Sutherland's desk, as he replied briefly to the cordial welcome given by the House.

Before the public accounts committee during the day, the cost of ministerial traveling expenses for a year ago was supplied to R. W. Bruhn, M.P.P. The return showed that $17,025 had been spent by members of the Cabinet for trips in 1935-36. These expenses were itemized as follows:

Premier Pattullo, $2,500; Hon. K. C. MacDonald, $1,198; Hon. G. M. Sloan, K.C., $2,439; Hon. G. M. Weir, $2,095; Hon. A. W. Gray, $2,174; Hon. F. M. MacPherson, $2,149; and Hon. G. S. Pearson, $1,251—total $17,025.

New bills were coming into the House, as the afternoon sitting adjourned at 5:55 p.m. until 8:30 p.m.

going on the rocks off Cape Cook. So it was with heavy hearts the crew of the Anxox made their slow way seaward in the teeth of the southeast gale, gradually working out of danger into searoom.

It was about 7 p.m., Tuesday night, when the Anxox saw the last of the Dunsyre, and shortly after lost the sound of her radioophone, which probably went out of business just then. Out of touch with the barge for the remainder of the time their ship was out, the crew of the Anxox, imagined all manner of things regarding the fate of the barge in the night, and gave her up for lost when there was no sign of her about the next morning. They were greatly relieved, members of the crew stated, when the news that the Dunsyre had been blown ashore near the entrance to

High Empire Award Won by B.C. Product

Pilsener Beer Carries Off Honors in Brewers' Exhibition and Market in London, Eng.

In competition with world renowned beers from all parts of the British Empire and the Continent, the highest award in its class has been conferred upon the famous Pilsener Beer, brewed and bottled at Vancouver, B.C. by Vancouver Breweries Ltd.

Confirmation of the award of trophies to two classes of Pilsener Beer has just been received by cable by Rudi Samet, manager of the Vancouver Breweries Limited. Both awards were won at the fifty-eighth annual exhibition of the Brewers' Exhibition and Market, London, England, in the Royal Agricultural Hall from October 31 to November 8.

Hailed for years as the premier beer in Western Canada, Pilsener Beer, by its recognition of superiority among world competitors fully justifies its slogan of "The Proud Product of a Master Brewer."

These London awards Mr. Samet declares are the achievement and culmination of forty-four years continuous experience in the brewing industry in Canada, and he states that the favorable climate and unexcelled water of Vancouver, to say nothing of British Columbia's hops, make it the ideal place for the production of Pilsener Beer.

He also paid tribute to the skill of Mr. R. B. Zimmermann, brewmaster at the Vancouver Breweries Limited for maintaining the unvarying purity, quality and flavor of Pilsener Beer.

It is also laid upon the fact that in the selection of malt and hops used in brewing Pilsener Beer only the finest obtainable in Canada are used. These, combined with the purest water, brewed with unceasing care and then fully lauded to mellow perfection produce the finest beer in the Empire in its class.

REPUDETE NON-INTERVENTION

The non-intervention convention decided upon to prevent military interference with Spain's internal affairs has gone by the board with the defection from it of Italy and Germany by mutual agreement. It was, from the beginning, a convention that was broken by a number of the Powers. It has been the military aid that continues to be extended by Soviet Russia to the Spanish Government that has led to the action by Germany and Italy. Doubtless these two Powers will now insure that the forces under General Franco will triumph in Spain's civil war, since they, by implication, have recognized a new authority in Spain.

The situation is one that increases the gravity of events in Europe. Dictatorships are subject to impulsive action in matters of this character, and this explains the decision of the two Powers concerned not to observe their obligation. It is presumed that Russia will follow suit, and then there is the possibility of some incident arising which will set the forces of Nazism and Fascism, on the one hand, and Communism on the other, at such loggerheads as may lead to overt action. Austria is expected to follow the Italian-German lead, and France, because of her past with Russia, may be forced into siding with Communism.

Great Britain has reiterated her determination to adhere to non-intervention in the Spanish crisis. The whole question of the attitude of the other European Powers towards Spain might well have been cleared up some months ago if the League of Nations had been functioning as it should. That body, however, was wholly quiescent in the matter. The issue has not been discussed at Geneva. The time seems to have arrived when the great Powers are determined, by individual volition or by bilateral arrangement, to act in what they consider their own interests, and this means that there is a continuously waning power in any strength or prestige enjoyed by the League of Nations. It is not a pleasant reflection. The political issues in Europe are so strained that it could be hoped that latter-day statesmanship would find some solution, especially in a case where there is unwarranted intrusion in the affairs of another country by any Power or any group of Powers.

OFFICIALDOM'S GRIP

The inquiry into the operation of marketing boards by a committee of British Columbia's Legislature has disclosed the interference that now prevails with what used to be individual rights and privileges. It is renewed evidence of the growing grip of officialdom on a supposedly free people. That grip is to be tightened where marketing boards are concerned, for seemingly the monopoly on the distribution of products is to be strengthened by regulations, not made by the Legislature, but engineered by the boards, and these are to have the force of law.

The Legislature is steadily renouncing its responsibility and giving up in favor of bureaucratic control the check and supervision it used to exercise. It is small wonder that a restless mentality is being engendered, and in proportion to it, the legislatures and governments fall into dispute. Even governments are delegating powers which were supposed to be inherent.

There will be another flagrant illustration of this when compulsory health insurance becomes operative in British Columbia. The legislation, no doubt, in the course of time, will be the subject of a legislative inquiry which, because of the attitude of legislators, will be as supine as that into marketing control. In both legislative and administrative spheres in this Province the Constitution is not being made operative as it should to defend the rights and privileges of the people. On the contrary, it is being encroached upon and weakened by those who should be its staunchest defenders.

THE GLOBE AND MAIL

It was a major event in the newspaper life of Toronto when The Globe changed hands: now there is another major event in the purchase of The Mail and Empire and the announcement that the two newspapers will be merged and published as The Globe and Mail. In each case the purchaser has been Mr. C. G. McCullagh, who is backed by Mr. W. H. Wright, a wealthy mining man. Mr. McCullagh will be the manager of the joint publication, for the financial of which Mr. Wright has set up a trust fund, of which Mr. McCullagh is sole trustee during his lifetime.

The Mail and Empire has been staunchly Conservative in its policies. The Globes has been staunchly Liberal. The joint publication is to be independent in viewpoint. In the conduct of the merged publications there is to be a board of directors selected from representative business and professional men, to act as both newspaper and political advisers. Mr. McCullagh, however, will be the guiding and the driving force, and while his experience with newspapers has not been an extensive one, there will be a general hope throughout the country that he will make a definite contribution to the newspaper life of Toronto and to that of Canada as a whole.

The time when The Globe was regarded the bible of the Liberals passed several years ago. As an independent organ under its new management, it cannot become the bible of any political party, but that does not mean that its prestige may not become greatly enhanced. For good or ill, people do not regard politics as seriously as they did, or do they, to the same extent as formerly, give unquestioned allegiance to the views expressed in any newspaper. This is perhaps due to the fact that there is a more impartial dissemination of news, and particularly political news, than ever before, and readers are able better to judge for themselves. The tradition of The Globe, however, offers its new ownership a great opportunity, especially if the intelligence and high principles of its past guide The Globe and Mail. Toronto might well be the publication point of one of the country's greatest newspapers. A newspaper can speak nationally from that centre if it will divorce itself from parochialism. Much will depend on the personality and ability of Mr. McCullagh. A successful newspaper is usually a one-man game, or a close association of two or three capable men who act in collaboration and whose joint wisdom decrees policies. A board of directors in such an organization is a creation of innocuous desuetude.

"VITAL PEACE"

No matter how authoritative may be the source, almost all statements about how the peace of the world can be achieved tantalize by their insufficiency. There is an illustration of this in the latest pronouncements of Mr. Wickham Steed, a noted correspondent, who knows Europe as well as any journalist. Mr. Steed is a proponent of peace. In his latest book, "Vital Peace," he admits that no nation that believes its existence to be endangered "can be trusted to keep its word." He believes wars will be started without notice, because there are now dictatorships in control in certain countries; and he believes as well that there will be no attempt to mitigate the horrors of war. Dictatorship, he says, by its very nature is the enemy that starts wars.

Mr. Steed pleads for peace, either immediate or after another "hard lesson." He is of opinion that the negative idea of peace has failed, which is tantamount to saying that the League of Nations has been proceeding along wrong lines. He does not consider that there is much use talking any more of peace "as an abstention from or prevention of war." The inference of this would be that Mr. Steed has something to propose, but he has absolutely nothing. He wants "vital peace" as a constructive adventure in civilization, but he does not say how it can be achieved. On the contrary, he shows clearly, if his assessment of the situation is correct, that the trend of the world towards dictatorship insures war. His book is wholly unsatisfying, and for one so familiar with what is going on behind the scenes in Europe it would be possible to expect some really constructive idea affecting how the peace of the world can be insured.

A welcome gleam of light in the tragic gloom that overshadows Spain comes from the evacuation by British ships of His Majesty's subjects and foreign nationals from that unhappy country since the beginning of the civil war. Official letters have been received by the British Government from the Belgian, Finnish, German, Netherlands, Norwegian, Peruvian, Polish, Swedish, Swiss, United States, and Venezuelan Governments; from the Cuban Minister at Paris, and from the Senate of the City of Danzig, containing appreciation of the efficient and courteous way in which the officers and men of His Majesty's ships gave assistance. Many letters were received from firms and private individuals to the same effect. This instance of helpfulness is in line with British tradition.

In the recent production in London by Komisarjevsky of Shakespeare's "Antony and Cleopatra," Eugene Leonovich, the Russian actress, fell away badly from her reputation in previous successful roles. The play held the board for only four days. The critics were caustic about both producer and star. The London critic of The New York Times inveighs against the "broken, incomprehensible English" of the actress as making the noble sentences of Shakespeare ridiculous. The moral for common people seems to be that in a woman a sweet voice is more to be desired than a pretty face, and clear enunciation than painted lips.

A legislative session in British Columbia without a loan bill would be an anomaly in these latter days. It has now become an old governmental custom to pile Pelion on Olympus in the matter of debt.

Some books are to be tasted, others to be swallowed, and some are to be chewed and digested. —Francis Bacon.

Sir James Douglas Pictured as Great Builder of Empire

Many Pioneer Families Represented at Commemoration of Birthday of British Columbia Held at Empress Hotel—B. A. McKelvie Is Speaker

DEEP appreciation of Sir James Douglas not only as a magnificent type of pioneer who laid the foundations of law and order and all that is meant by civilization in this part of the world, but as "one of the great Empire builders of British history," was expressed by B. A. McKelvie in the course of the talk he gave at the Sir James and Lady Douglas Chapter, I.O.D.E., annual tea held at the Empress Hotel ballroom yesterday afternoon in commemoration of the birthday of British Columbia.

"But for Sir James Douglas, this country today would have been under the Stars and Stripes and there would have been no British flag on this side of the Pacific. We have not yet realized the full measure of his service to our country and Empire," said the speaker, at one point.

PIONEER FAMILIES
This annual event attracted about 125 guests, among whom were representatives of most of the pioneer families of Victoria. Mrs. E. W. Hamber, chaperone at Government House, was present for the first time, accompanied by her secretary, Mrs. M. Rice, and was specially welcomed by the regent, Mrs. Colin Cummins, who expressed the pride felt by the members in having such a distinguished guest, who was herself a member of one of the early families of this country. The chapter was also particularly happy to have with them Mrs. R. B. McKelvie, the first regent, and in naming her, Mrs. Cummins called attention to the chapter's motto: "To keep one hand upon the traditions of the past, and green the memory of our illustrious dead."

This appeared in two or three places about the walls of the room, which was beautifully arranged with pale gold and pink single chrysanthemums. Tea was served from a charmingly-appointed buffet table in the centre of the ballroom, at which Mrs. A. M. Piller, educational secretary, Mrs. J. S. Plackett, Miss McMullin and Mrs. George Bushby presided. Mrs. E. W. Hamber (standard bearer), was convener of the arrangements, assisted by Mrs. G. W. Pottinger (assistant secretary).

On her arrival at 3 o'clock, Mrs. Hamber was welcomed by the reception committee, comprising the honorary regent, Mrs. R. B. McKelvie; the honorary vice-regent, Mrs. W. Fitzherbert Bullen; the regent, Mrs. Colin Cummins; and Mrs. A. S. Christie and Miss Alice Terry, vice-regents.

THE ADDRESS
In beginning his address, Mr. McKelvie reminded his audience that November 20th was the seventy-eighth anniversary of the birthday of British Columbia, but

Truck Turned Into Anti-Gas Weapon

London's latest development for military defence against gas attack makes use of the ordinary unwarlike street cleaning truck. An auxiliary apparatus attached to the truck throws out jets of water to disperse poison gas in the air, and also sends out fan shaped sprays of water to cleanse walls and roofs which have been contaminated by poison gas. A demonstration of the new equipment is shown here with the "crew" of the truck clad in gas proof clothing, complete with mask.

revelation of Sir James Douglas's character, recommending that the material should be preserved in the chapter's archives. A delightful musical programme was given by two much enjoyed singers, Mrs. Duncan McTavish, who was accompanied by Miss Helen Ockenden; Mrs. W. H. Wilson, who was accompanied by Mrs. John Gough; Mr. George Green, who played two very popular cornet solos; and Mrs. Jaffray, who filled an interlude with fascinating Scottish airs played on the piano.

Sale of Raffle Tickets Here Is Ordered Stopped

OWING to the numerous complaints about raffles being conducted in Victoria, Chief Thomas Healey yesterday warned that sales of tickets must be discontinued. Many raffles are held annually at this time of year, and reports have been received that several were operating them for personal gain under the guise of turning proceeds over to charitable organizations.

JUNIORS HEAR PARTY LEADER

Dr. Frank P. Patterson Addresses Group of Young Conservatives Here

Dr. Frank P. Patterson, leader of the Conservative Party in the Province, paid a surprise visit to the Young Conservative Association at a social and dance in the Campbell Building last night and addressed the younger members of the party.

Dr. Patterson, after complimenting the young people on their enthusiasm and activity in Victoria, stressed the desirability of co-operation of youth in the activities of the Conservative Party. He told them there was a place for youth in the party with worthy tasks to perform.

DESIRE TO SERVE
Conservatism, he said, meant a recognition of facts as they existed and that the Conservative Party was intending to deal with the problems facing the people, sincerely, with a desire to serve the interests of all. He urged continued interest in the affairs of the party, and stated the officers of the parent association would welcome, at all times, any suggestions from the Young Conservatives in formulating policies.

The gathering was largely attended, and Thomas Woods, president of the junior association, was master of ceremonies during the evening.

WARD ONE LIBERALS NOMINATE OFFICERS

Nominations of candidates for officers in Ward One Liberal Association closed last night, and the annual meeting and election of officers will take place at Liberal headquarters on November 27.

The following were nominated for president, Joshua Smith and Edward W. Merriman; for vice-president, George S. Tannock and Fred W. Watson; for secretary, Arthur G. Bird and Samuel Henson; and treasurer, John G. MacKenzie.

PASSES AWAY IN HOSPITAL

Mrs. J. S. Cunningham Succumbs After Short Illness

Following a short illness, Mrs. Mary Cunningham, wife of John S. Cunningham, of Portage Inlet, passed away yesterday morning in the Royal Jubilee Hospital. She came to Victoria in 1892 with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tait, and had made her residence here ever since.

Mrs. Cunningham was a well-known and highly respected citizen and news of her untimely death will be received with deep sorrow by a wide circle of friends and acquaintances.

Mrs. Cunningham, who was born fifty-two years ago in Brantford, Ontario, was married in 1912 in St. Saviour's Anglican Church, Victoria West. She was a member of St. Saviour's Church.

She leaves to mourn their loss her husband and three children, John, Frances and Sonia, all at the family residence at Portage Inlet; two sisters, Mrs. E. F. Nasson, Vancouver, and Mrs. J. G. MacPhee, San Rafael, California, and six brothers, D. S. Tait, J. L. Tait, Ernest L. Tait, Dr. E. S. Tait and C. Harold Tait, all of Victoria, and J. P. Tait, of Nanaimo.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

COL. WOLLEY DOD DIES AT CALGARY

Had Been Visitor to Victoria for Past Twelve Years Attracted By Natural Beauty

Word was received here yesterday of the passing of Lieut.-Col. Arthur G. Wolley Dod at Calgary. With Mrs. Wolley Dod, he had been a visitor to Victoria every Autumn for the past twelve years, being attracted by the natural beauty and the many woodland walks to which he was devoted. He was seventy-six years of age.

In 1882, Col. Wolley Dod arrived in Minnesota, from Ontario, to learn farming. He returned to England for a short time and then journeyed to Pine Creek district in Alberta, where he purchased 800 acres of land. He joined the Canadian Mounted Rifles in Calgary after the Boer War, and was soon appointed to a commissioned rank.

At the outbreak of the World War, he joined the 82nd Battalion with the rank of major, and was drafted to the 31st Battalion in France. He was second in command of reinforcement camps on the Somme and Colliquet. Later he commanded one of the wings at Epernay in the Armistice. He was appointed representative of the repatriation of prisoners of war at Ripon.

SAANICH PLANS REASSESSMENT

Council to Appoint Valuator To Aid in Project Stated For Next Year

The second step towards the re-assessment of Saanich in 1937 was taken by the Saanich Council last night, when it was decided to appoint a valuator.

The duties of the valuator will be to assist the assessor by valuating the buildings and indexing each parcel, especially prepared cards.

A 10 per cent reduction on the assessment of all buildings erected prior to 1930 was the first step taken at a recent meeting.

The valuator, it was said, will be required to complete the work by October, 1937. Only qualified, practical men will be considered, the council decided.

No salary was set, although the work may be carried out by contract or on a monthly basis.

GOVERNOR VISITS VETERANS' UNIT

Hon. Eric W. Hamber Returns Call Of Army and Navy Veterans At Headquarters

Returning the visit of officers of the Army and Navy Veterans in Canada, Victoria unit No. 12, Hon. Eric W. Hamber, Lieutenant-Governor, last night attended the regular meeting and was later guest at a social in the unit's headquarters, Wharf Street.

Commander C. T. Beard and Colonel H. C. Greer were also guests of the evening. The Governor addressed the meeting briefly and later joined with the members in the spirit of entertainment and music.

Brigadier J. Sutherland Brown accompanied His Honor as A.D.C.

It was planned to hold the annual reunion of the unit on Wednesday, December 16. The Christmas tree for children of the members will be held December 30.

MESSAGE OF HOPE

RAYMOND, Wales, Nov. 19 (P)—The King closed his tour of South Wales today with a message of hope.

He was in Blaenavon, once a thriving steel town, now derelict with more than half its population unemployed.

"I have followed everything I have seen in South Wales with the deepest interest," His Majesty told the chairman of the unemployment committee. "Everything will be done that can be done."

LUNCHEON WITH MINERS

The King's route varied today from pleasant countryside ways to desolate villages. He visited industrial centres and social clubs.

He lunched with miners at a welfare institute. He saw boys and girls unable to find a job. Miners who had been unemployed for years broke through police cordons to put him on their back. And ruined manhood did his best to give him a cheery welcome. On slagheaps and silent workbenches Union Jacks and strings of bunting.

Just before boarding his train at the end of the two-day tour, the King visited Rhymney's social service centre and joined in community singing. He gathered round a piano with unemployed miners for a song. Someone handed him a songbook and he joined in lustily.

"Terrible, terrible," said the King on several occasions when he heard stories of years of unemployment told by workless miners.

Visiting 100 children eating lunch at the artillery welfare centre he admonished "please sit down and go on with your meal" when all rose to attention.

And to a little girl, busy with a bowl of soup.

"How are you enjoying it?" the child became so excited she spilled the soup and could not answer.

At Pontypool another note was touched. An open letter to His Majesty King Edward VIII was distributed in the streets. The King learned of the letter and asked to see a copy of it. The letter bore the signatures of thirty unemployed men from Eastern Valley, Monmouthshire, who joined in a march of protest against the means test from Wales to Westminster.

The letter told of a valley "blighted by the dead hand of poverty."

SAANICH PLANS REASSESSMENT

Council to Appoint Valuator To Aid in Project Stated For Next Year

The second step towards the re-assessment of Saanich in 1937 was taken by the Saanich Council last night, when it was decided to appoint a valuator.

The duties of the valuator will be to assist the assessor by valuating the buildings and indexing each parcel, especially prepared cards.

A 10 per cent reduction on the assessment of all buildings erected prior to 1930 was the first step taken at a recent meeting.

The valuator, it was said, will be required to complete the work by October, 1937. Only qualified, practical men will be considered, the council decided.

No salary was set, although the work may be carried out by contract or on a monthly basis.

GOVERNOR VISITS VETERANS' UNIT

Hon. Eric W. Hamber Returns Call Of Army and Navy Veterans At Headquarters

Returning the visit of officers of the Army and Navy Veterans in Canada, Victoria unit No. 12, Hon. Eric W. Hamber, Lieutenant-Governor, last night attended the regular meeting and was later guest at a social in the unit's headquarters, Wharf Street.

Commander C. T. Beard and Colonel H. C. Greer were also guests of the evening. The Governor addressed the meeting briefly and later joined with the members in the spirit of entertainment and music.

Brigadier J. Sutherland Brown accompanied His Honor as A.D.C.

It was planned to hold the annual reunion of the unit on Wednesday, December 16. The Christmas tree for children of the members will be held December 30.

MESSAGE OF HOPE

RAYMOND, Wales, Nov. 19 (P)—The King closed his tour of South Wales today with a message of hope.

He was in Blaenavon, once a thriving steel town, now derelict with more than half its population unemployed.

"I have followed everything I have seen in South Wales with the deepest interest," His Majesty told the chairman of the unemployment committee. "Everything will be done that can be done."

Kinsmen Club Reverses Order at Dinner-Dance

Reversing conventions wherever possible, resulting in a programme of merriment, the Kinsmen Club held its "ladies' night" dinner-dance at the Empress Hotel, last night, with approximately seventy-six attending.

Ushered to their places at the dinner tables, the gathering found the silverware set backwards. The menu was printed in reversed order and coffee was served first, followed by ice cream, which in turn was followed by the main course.

The programme called for Mrs. B. E. Nickells to answer a toast to the ladies before it was proposed by Dr. R. J. Rodwell. Favors, salt-and-pepper shakers in the form of tiny cream and sugar sets, were presented to the ladies during the evening.

MYSTIFYING FEATS

Mystifying presentations of William Harkness were well received, bringing repeated applause from the gathering.

Mr. Cecil Luckhart, president, presided. Those on the committee in charge were: Mr. J. E. Sanders, chairman; Mr. Patrick Mulcahy and Mr. William Dillabough.

Those present included: Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Luckhart, Mr. Victor Gilbert, Miss Mona Keipin,

Bazaar Nets Fine Sum for Work of W.A.

Mrs. W. C. Nichol opened the bazaar held yesterday afternoon by the Women's Auxiliary to Britannia Branch No. 7, Canadian Legion, in the auditorium of the clubrooms. A very large crowd attended, and later in the evening, friends joined the members in a court waltz party, which, with the results of the afternoon, netted a profit of $100. The money will be used for benevolent and general purposes.

Mrs. A. Norris was at the door to receive the guests, and also introduced Mrs. Nichol to the president, Mrs. A. Hall, and to the guests, following which little Dorothy Plin presented Mrs. Nichol with a bouquet of gold and bronze chrysanthemums. As Mrs. Nichol entered the auditorium, Mrs. D. Swan, the pianist, played "In a Persian Market."

Each convener had taken much thought in arranging her stall, and the result was most picturesque. The background of the stage was a verdant scene, and around the room the many stalls were placed with the tea tables arranged to ward the centre. Each small table was covered with an attractive cloth and adorned with a silver vase of flowers, and the head table was spread with a lace cloth centred with a silver basket of variegated chrysanthemums. Specially invited guests at this table were Mrs. Nichol, Mrs. A. Mortimer, honorary president, and Rev. E. F. and Mrs. Church.

The general conveners were Mrs. A. Hall and Mrs. A. Norris. The bazaar-house continued in popularity throughout the afternoon, and the prizes all consisted of tin goods, which had been neatly stacked to form a background. In charge of this game was Mrs. J. Dempster. The "lady of a thousand pockets," who was Mrs. Percy Swetnam, proved to be a great favorite with the children. Fancywork was under the convener'ship of Mrs. A. Kendrew, with the assistance of Mrs. D. Swan, and awards were in charge of Mrs. S. Beech. Mrs. W. C. Nichol supervised the novelties stall and

Fairfield United W.M.S.

Fairfield United Church W.M.S. met yesterday afternoon, the devotional period being in charge of Mrs. Keefe. A Bible reading was given by Mrs. B. Bamford; a leaflet on the healing work of Christ by Mrs. C. A. Fields and prayer were offered for medical missions at home and abroad. Mrs. Alfred Dowell reviewed the first chapter of the new study book, "Men and Women of Far Horizons," which was compiled and edited by Miss Jessie Wilson. The Students' Christian Movement, and which gives a cross-section of present-day mission work in thirteen countries. It includes fifty-eight stories covering every phase of mission work. The chapter read yesterday dealt with medical missions. Mrs. Gerald Green was in charge of the business meeting. Eighteen members and five visitors attended. A letter was read from Mrs. Dorsey, enclosing a donation and her monthly subscription. Miss Edith Hopkins read the treasurer's report, and reports were also read on temperance work, mission and Baby Bands, C.O.I.T., visiting and literary departments. The next meeting will be held on December 9 instead of December 16. Mrs. Keefe's circle served tea after the meeting.

Venture Club

The Victoria Venture Club held a progressive bridge party in aid of its Christmas hamper fund in the Soroptimist Club rooms on Wednesday. Bronze, red and white chrysanthemums were used in decorating the rooms. Kay Dunnett, Rita Mothershead and Gordon Fraser were the prize winners. Among those present were Mesdames M. Ferris, J. Kingberry, A. O. Robinson, G. Cook, N. Goyette, Misses K. Greenham, M. Holmes, K. Dunnett, K.

St. Paul's W.M.S.

Under the auspices of the Junior and Associate Auxiliaries to the W.M.S. of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, an illustrated lecture was given recently by Miss Helen Douglas, missionary from India. The pictures, which were beautifully colored, depicted the country and peoples where Miss Douglas and her co-workers are laboring, and gave an insight into the work which is carried on by the missionaries sent out by the board of the W.M.S. of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. The Gorge and Eskime societies were the guests of St. Paul's, and at the close of the meeting, a social hour was spent.

Wilkinson Road W.A.

The monthly meeting of the W.A. of Wilkinson Road United Church was held at the home of Mrs. A. E. Campion, Wilkinson Road. In the absence of the president, the chair was occupied by Mrs. G. Jones, vice-president, who led the devotional exercises. It was decided to hold a cooking sale on December 15. The next meeting will be held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. William Allan, Glynn Road. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. J. Quirk.

Pour into a ring mold decorated with slices of maraschino cherries and chill thoroughly. Turn out on a crystal plate and fill with a compote of fruits.

at the church parlor, East Saanich Road, next Thursday. A patchwork quilt, made by the members, will be for sale; and Mrs. L. Hafer will be in charge of the home cooking stall; Mrs. A. Patterson, of a farmwork and plain sewing. Afternoon tea will be served from 3 to 5 o'clock. In the evening, Rev. Andrew Roddan, Vancouver, will show lantern slides of Spain.

First Spiritualist Tea

The ladies of the First Spiritualist will hold their weekly silver tea today in the S.O.E. Hall from 2:30 to 5 o'clock. The readers will be Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Youson and Mr. W. L. Holden.

Gordon Head Club

Gordon Head Current Events Club will meet on Monday. Mrs. Nellie McClung will review events and Miss Oldfield will speak on the Saanich welfare work.

Saanich Welfare Needs Materials For Baby Clothes

An enjoyable time was spent by those who attended the shower for the baby clothes held by the Saanich Welfare Association on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. J. C. Newbury acted as convener, assisted by Mrs. W. Foster and Mrs. B. P. Hollins. The entertainment, arranged by Mrs. W. H. Steele, was much enjoyed. Mrs. L. Batchelor sang "Dream O' Day Jil," "Smiling Through" and "An Old-Fashioned House." The music was given by Doris Brooks and Kay Steele, accompanied by tap dancing. Irish jigs and a song, "A Waltz Was Born in Vienna."

Donations were received from Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. MacPherson, Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. Roe, Mrs. J. G. C. Wood, Mesdames Glewyn, Forman and E. Foster, the Misses Ames and Margaret Rowe, Miss Rowland and a friend.

Those who were unable to attend the shower are asked to send donations to Mrs. B. P. Hollins, 1960 Haultain Street, E. 14th, or to Mrs. W. Foster, Wellington Avenue, Colquitz 28M. Plans for the fund are being carried out.

Rugby Union Plans Dance

The Victoria Rugby Union will hold its annual dance in aid of the hospital fund at the Royal Victoria Yacht Club on Saturday, December 5, commencing at 9 p.m.

The dance will follow the first "reg" game, when Victoria plays Varsity, and it is hoped to have the members of the Varsity team as guests of honor.

A popular orchestra has been engaged for the evening, and supper will be served. The committee in charge of the dance includes Major Stuart Robertson, Mr. Aubrey Walls, Mr. Ron McConnan and Mr. Bob Wallace. Tickets may be obtained from any Rugby player or member of the Rugby Union.

P.T.A. Activities

DUNCAN

The Duncan Association held a very well-attended meeting at the K. of P. Hall, Duncan. The president, Mrs. A. Leeming, was in the chair. R. W. Pillsbury, of the Duncan High School staff, gave an interesting address on "Science and Its Relation to the Schools," for which he was accorded the thanks of the meeting. Duets were sung by J. Dobson and R. Bailey. Miss Rosemary Parfitt played the accompaniment. The association decided to sponsor a concert by the Spencer Choir from Victoria, the proceeds of which will be given to the gymnasium fund. The concert will be held December 2. A cooked-food sale will be held November 28 in aid of the association funds. The consolidated Board was thanked for its offer to supply the necessary fuel for the soup kitchen, which the P.T.A. maintains at the Consolidated School during the winter months.

It was decided to notify members and all those thought interested in meetings by postcard each month in future.

Mrs. Leeming was chosen to represent the P.T.A. at a public meeting which will be called to arrange for the local observance of the Klondike Coronation.

The programme committee reported that a speaker from the Provincial Museum had been secured to address the next meeting, the subject to deal with natural history. The talk will be illustrated.

Following the ceremony, the relations and intimate friends were entertained at the tea hour, at the home of the child's grandmother, Mrs. W. McFadden, North Salt Spring.

The Settlement School held a progressive whist drive and dance recently at the Central Settlement Hall, to raise funds for the school's Christmas party. Twenty-six tables took part in play and the first prize winners were Mrs. W. Norton and Mr. P. Shipley; second, Mrs. W. Wilson and Mr. R. Woods; consolation, Miss D. Evans and Mr. B. Hague. The lucky chair awards went to Miss Ida Dewhurst and B. Hague.

REJECTS PLEAS FOR REZONING

Oak Bay Council Passes Amendment to By-Law After Public Hearing

A by-law to amend the Oak Bay Municipal By-Law was passed by the council Wednesday after it had been given a public hearing and had met no opposition. The by-law will be finally passed at the next meeting of the council.

Applications, however, were received to rezone certain areas, but they were refused. P. L. James suggested the clause covering required floor space be elastic in its application.

Four main points were included in the by-law, R. F. Blandy, clerk, explained. First, preventing the erection of a group of automobile camps under a single roof and thereby claiming recognition as an apartment; second, requiring floor space of 800, 1,000 and 1,200 square feet in the three types of buildings; third, providing that garages and chicken houses be set back an extra five feet, where they might possibly detract from the value of other premises; fourth, minor changes regarding rebuilding after fire.

Charles Wilson asked rezoning of a large block bounded by Newport Avenue, Windsor Road and St. Denis Street from a residential into a retail store area. He explained he could not at present do anything with it, but had offers of rental provided he erected stores there.

A request that Beach Drive be declared an apartment area was refused, as was an application by the Hastings Finance Company to have a three-acre area at the intersection of Newport Avenue and Windsor Road set aside as a retail district.

GRAND TRUSTEE VISITS EAGLES

James W. Bryan, Attorney-at-Law, Welcomed by Officers and Members of Victoria Aerie

James W. Bryan, junior grand trustee of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, member of Bremerton, Washington, Aerie No. 192, visited Victoria Aerie Wednesday evening and was given a generous welcome by the large attendance of officers and members. Mr. Bryan is an attorney-at-law and former prosecuting attorney of Kitsap County.

Following regular ceremonies, Mr. Bryan gave an inspirational talk on the aims and achievements of the order in Canada and the United States. He stressed the record of the Eagles in sponsoring humanitarian measures and mentioned the gain in membership and financial strength during the past five years which, he said, indicated the value of the organization in the work it was performing.

The committee in charge of the social and entertainment included: A. Pynn, chairman; P. Babcock, C. O'Regan, P. Cain, J. Green, A. Hampton, D. Eider, President J. R. B. Graham was in the chair.

"Where can I put Jackie's birthday present, so that he won't find it?" "Simple—put it among his school books." —Hummel, Hamburg.

Thou shalt not Love

by Alma Stouck

CHAPTER XXV

It was Linc who took charge of everything on the day the Kelvins gave up their home in Jackson Heights. In an old suit he used for outings in the country, the artist supervised the men with the moving van in taking the furniture out, and met them at the Flushing apartment to make certain nothing was damaged.

But what Josh did not know was that he had paid half the moving bill, swearing the owner of the van to see that he got the rates for moving were entirely too high for her depleted funds.

Maida remained at the house to finish up odds and ends, while Linc and Josh took charge at the new place. She went from room to room, taking a last look at her possessions, for she felt certain she was leaving them forever. Never again would she be in a position to resume her place as mistress of the home.

Looking back on it all, she realized that only in leaving it did she fully appreciate how much of himself her husband had put into their life.

New York house. And what had she given him in return? How patient Pan had been with her foolishness, how willing to do anything in the world to make her happy.

In his den she dropped to her knees and prayed silently, tears of contrition streaming down the white cheeks. If there were only some way she could let him know that she had loved him, that all her life would be spent trying to make up to her daughters for the foolish way she had spent her youth.

Maida Kelton had never done anything really wrong. In the worst sense of the word, her flirtations had never gone any further than a certain inborn sense of decency allowed. But she knew there were people who would believe that she had been a true wife to her brilliant, quiet mate. In her quest for excitement she had been foolishly defiant of how things ought look to other people.

Keeping herself surrounded by younger, handsome men had been the one thing that seemed to satisfy her vanity. The one-time "American Camero" had been always certain that when the day came when she no longer attracted with her golden beauty, she wanted to quit the world.

It had taken a fake count to make her realize the truth about herself—that she was no longer young and beautiful. That she had been foolish and vain, and so anxious to prove to her friends she was capable of capturing and holding a young man of title that she had given him everything she had in the world.

What Today Means

"SCORPIO"

If November 20 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this day are from 10 a.m. until noon, from 3 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m.

The danger periods are from 8 to 10 a.m., from 5 to 7 p.m. and from 9 to 11 p.m.

It might be well for you to remember this day that "Discontent is the want of self-reliance, the infirmity of will." Be cheerful if you want to be popular, for a dismal face will attract only those who have troubles of their own, and wish to share them. You may be misunderstood regarding some stand you might take this day, so if you feel called upon to take a clearly defined position it might be well to make your reasons plain for so doing. An experience you may have this day is likely to prove of great future value to you, so welcome it. Examine carefully anything with locks, catches, or clasps. The defects in them may cause the loss of some valuables. Social aspirations must not induce you to sacrifice any high ideals, for if you hold steadfastly to them you will accomplish much more than by compromising. Married and engaged couples as well as those with matrimonial prospects must be discreet this day in matters of criticism.

If a woman and November 20 is your birthday, you are generally cool under exciting circumstances, brave, and extremely frank. You ought to be very ahead in business, capable of driving a good bargain, as well as forecasting good prospects. You may want your own way too often when another person's might be the logical one. Avoid being stubborn for your own sake because obstinacy can become one of your greatest faults. Riches are apt to come into your life at an unusual—opportune—time. As a teacher, painter, musician, author, actress or sales representative your financial success seems assured. Your happiness as a wife and mother ought to be great, as auspicious conditions surround your matrimonial prospects.

The child born on November 20 can be expected in its late teens to do something very brilliant, possibly in the way of school work. Art perhaps will enable this youngster to become recognized as possessing great ability.

If a man and November 20 is your natal day, love your work, appreciate your results and try to satisfy your clients, if you would have success crown your efforts. As a lecturer, actor, preacher, educator, manufacturer, salesman or writer your chances of being successful are excellent.

CLUB IS GIVEN SCIENCE TALK

Dr. J. Allen Harris, M.P.P., Outlines Great Progress To Rotarians Here

In addressing the Rotary Club in the Empress Hotel yesterday on "Man and Molecules," Dr. J. Allen Harris, M.P.P. for South Okanagan, urged clubmen to get away from the idea that a scientific discovery was of no use if some person was not able to reap financial rewards from it.

Dr. Harris pointed out the world was in a transitional period from mechanical to chemical arts, and revolutionary as the change from the stone age to bronze. For 200 years science had been contributing actively to the welfare of humanity, but scientists had difficulty in convincing the public. Scientific developments had reached a point where even many so-called modern buildings were out of date, he asserted.

"What has your uncle done to his foot?"
"He went to sleep and the newspaper slipped from his hand."
—Gazettino Illustrato, Venice.

Science isolated ninety-two elements, and every known substance was built from them and their many combinations. After ten years of intensive research, scientists were beginning to find out how nature made her molecules. From laboratory experiments it was quite possible that big new industries would develop, he stated.

WORK OF SCIENCE
If it were not for scientific research, the population would still be running around in bare feet, Dr. Harris declared. Those living today were in a far better position than their forefathers who studied classics and literature, rather than science. In addition to its work for humanity, modern science was also a great intellectual stimulant, he claimed.

He regretted a man of science was not given credit for his work in the interests of humanity. If it were not for the work of Michael Faraday and Sir William Ramsay, there would be no electric power nor neon signs, he told clubmen.

WORKED WITH MOLECULES
Even egyptians and early Egyptians worked with molecules, although they did not know it, Dr. Harris stated. It was a fallacy to state that arts of the ancients had been lost with the passing of time. A magic bleaching powder dispensed by priests in days of the Pharaohs had been found to consist of powdered camel dung. The famous royal purple dye was nothing more than an extract from snails, and non-permanent in its effects, he declared.

In conclusion, Dr. Harris paid high tribute to the training at the University of British Columbia. Big

MRS. MCGREGOR IS IN CONTEST

Familiar Figure in Several Civic Elections Seeks Seat on Council

MRS. ALICE MCGREGOR

Mrs. Alice McGregor, 1190 Camrose Crescent, who first came to the city forty years ago, announced yesterday she would seek election to the City Council. She is the widow of James McGregor, who represented Nanaimo in the Provincial Legislature, and she has been a familiar figure in several civic election contests.

The following statement was made by Mrs. McGregor:
"In consideration of public opinion, and as a result of earnest deliberations regarding municipal business affairs, I have again been prevailed upon by a number of ratepayers to stand as a candidate for the aldermanic board in the forthcoming elections.

CONSTANT VIGILANCE
"One of my qualifications is a rather full life, consisting principally of solving difficult problems, financial and otherwise, apart from the routine of ordinary family budgeting. The electorate has a right to expect constant vigilance in civic affairs, a duty I am prepared to execute, together with whatever else is necessary from a representative of the electorate.

"Seven long years I have kept faith that eventually the electorate would discover an all-male council is not the most perfect set up to conduct municipal affairs. Our present financial standing proves something. By electing women to the council, Victoria would not only be honoring her women, but it would be a progressive step toward economic government."

"If I am to be honored, I shall indeed be proud and happy to serve by constantly advocating a programme of economy that will fit in with safe and sane methods of conducting public business," Mrs. McGregor declared.

GIVES NUMBER OF SERVICE WORKERS

There are more civil servants in Greater Vancouver and New Westminster than on the whole of Vancouver Island, according to returns by Provincial Secretary G. M. Weir to questions by Tom Uphill, Fernie. In making replies to specific questions, the minister omitted inclusion of police, the personnel at Okalla prison farm, and did not make it clear that his figures also included the employees of various boards.

The categories that he gave included: On Vancouver Island, permanent staff 466, temporary 194 and sixty-seven sundry employees, a total of 837, while in Greater Vancouver, New Westminster and Coquitlam, permanent 365, temporary eighty-eight, casual 566, a total of 1,019.

Exclusive of police and sundry workers the civil service has 1,313 permanent employees and 233 temporary servants, Dr. Weir said.

SAMPLING PLANTS FOR MINERS TO BE BUILT

A bill was introduced into the Legislature on Wednesday by Hon. John Hart for the purpose of making ore purchases and treating of ore in small plants. The bill has for its object the establishment, for the purpose of assisting the mining industry, of sampling plants at strategic points in the province. One of these, it is announced, will be erected at Prince Rupert to serve the Northern Coast mining areas. Another will be placed at Nelson to serve the mining areas about that centre.

It is supposed that the plants will be of assistance to the small operators, who will have the opportunity of getting their ores tested. Provision is made for financing the project by the Government.

A dispatch from Stuttgart, Germany, states that a pastor has been barred from giving instruction in schools in Wurttemberg for praying "God grant the Fuehrer (Chancellor Hitler) guidance to his spirit so that he may submit humbly to it." This was considered a reflection on Hitler's policies.

Some questions were submitted to the deputy minister of industries.

FEW ACCOUNTS UNDER REVIEW

R. W. Bruhn Says He Failed To Understand Payments On Bridge Account

In the public accounts committee of the Legislature, yesterday morning, with Gordon Wismer, M.P.P., as chairman, consulting fees connected with the new Fraser River bridge, came under review. The inquiries were made by R. W. Bruhn, M.P.P. for Salmon Arm, who, on the conclusion of the discussion, contended he was not any more enlightened with regard to the matter than when he started.

H. W. Edmondson, Public Works Department, attended and was not in a position to answer inquiries of the member for Salmon Arm.

Mr. Bruhn called attention to payments in 1935 to W. G. Swan, in connection with the bridge plans, of $70,000 as consulting engineer.

COULD NOT UNDERSTAND
The explanation of this by the departmental accountant was that under the contract Mr. Swan got $10,000 cash down and $10,000 a month, later. He had been paid at the rate of 5 per cent on the whole work.

Mr. Bruhn asked why there should be another fee of 1-1/2 per cent paid to the Fraser River Bridge Company.

He wanted to know what company this was and why it was necessary to pay this commission. Mr. Edmondson said that it was the original company. It got 5 per cent in cash and 2-1/2 per cent when the work was completed.

H. E. Winch, M.P.P. for Vancouver-Point Grey, pointed out that this would mean that 12-1/2 per cent was being paid in all on the work.

The chairman said the amount was set out in the agreement entered into with the old company to compensate it for the losses it sustained.

EMPLOYEES' DEDUCTIONS
Mr. Winch had questions regarding the laundry collections made from some of the employees at the Incurables' Home at Marpole, which was associated with the Vancouver Hospital.

P. Walker, deputy provincial secretary, explained that the matter was one of bookkeeping and that no injustice was being done any employee. Of the sixteen men employed there, only eleven were staying at the place and it was in adjusting this that the difficulty arose.

Some questions were submitted to the deputy minister of industries.

There's no doubt it's finest quality if the gift is...

This advertisement is not published or displayed by the Liquor Control Board or by the Government of British Columbia.

E. G. Rowbottom. To Mr. Bruhn, the deputy said that there was about $203,979 outstanding on loans at present. The collections, he thought, were coming in very well considering everything. In 1935 the collections were more than $8,000, and in 1936 about $12,000. The expenditures of the office were about $6,000.

The accounts of J. W. deB. Faris, K.C., for legal services for the Government, came under review when lay members of the committee expressed concern over the figures given. It was shown that a bill of $13,000 had been cut to $11,000, but the latter figure appeared to lay members of the committee quite substantial.

FOUR wonderful foods combine in harmony to give you grand fare when you open a tin of Heinz Cooked Spaghetti. Farmer and dairyman, spice grower and chef—all contribute their best to this nourishing dish.

Golden wheat, sweet milk, fresh butter, imported cheese and other selected ingredients give flavour and nutrient to Heinz Cooked Spaghetti. All are blended with Heinz tomato sauce and the most fragrant seasonings that ever left the spice marts of the far-off Orient.

Just to be sure of perfection, Heinz makes the spaghetti itself, from selected gluten-rich Canadian wheat. Then it is cooked with the other good things by master chefs to the highest degree of melting tenderness and taste. As a main dish for luncheons, or an enticing side dish for dinner, or used to give body to a thin soup, you'll be delighted with this delicious, satisfying food.

When you're ordering spaghetti, get a tin or two of Heinz Cooked Macaroni. Prepared with nourishing Heinz-made Macaroni, smooth cream sauce and appetizing, flavour-some cheese. It's delicious! Your dealer has both and Heinz prices are always moderate.

DOLLARS UP THE FLUE?

This seems a very silly thing to do, but it happens when you burn fuel that is deficient in B.T.U. (heat units) or too high in moisture content or ashes. Exclusive use of NANAIMO-WELLINGTON and COMOX COALS... in furnace, range and fireplace... will prevent this costly waste and pay dividends in comfort. These fine Island Coals fill every fuel requirement... they are hot, clean and economical and every ton provides a day's work for an Island miner.

CLEMENT MAY IS GUEST OF GROUP

Dickens Fellowship Welcomes Character Actor and Heaps of Work Among Young People

At a recent meeting of the Dickens Fellowship, the members were entertained by Clement May, well-known character actor. Mr. May's address dealt chiefly with his recent work in bringing Dickens before the young people of British Columbia.

For Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds

Just a Few Sips And Like a Flash—Relief

It's different—it's faster in action—it's compounded on superior medical fast findings. BUCKLEY'S MIXTURE (triple action) is the name of this amazing cough and cold prescription that is so fast and free from harmful drugs that a child can take it and sleep soundly.

The first recital of this kind was given recently at the Kitilano High School in Vancouver.

In conducting this work Mr. May feels certain that it is possible to create a liking for Dickens' characters among the children who want to read the books. And in this regard, as is always the case after he has given his impersonations and talks to the children about Dickens, there is a demand for his books at the local bookshops.

ANNUAL BANQUET

Arrangements have been made to hold the fellowship's annual Christmas banquet on December 19 at David Spencer Limited, where donations will again be collected for hampers to be distributed at Christmas.

"Don't cry or there will be another spanking." "I can't help it—it's cold, and I'm all by myself." —Lustige Schach, Leipzig mas time. Plans were made to produce a short Dickensian sketch as part of the programme for that evening under the direction of E. F. Chester, with a committee of members consisting of Mrs. M. M. Beasley, Mrs. B. C. Ruddock, Mrs. M. Chapple, Mrs. E. Pearson and the secretary.

H. L. Fensham, the president, presided and welcomed three new members, Miss M. Bird, Mrs. C. E. Stacey and Mrs. M. J. Peacey to the fellowship. The latter a former member of the London branch.

TRADES COUNCIL OPPOSES PANELS

Victoria and District Group Not in Favor of System of Doctors Under Medical Aid Act

Opposition to the introduction of the panel system of doctors in connection with state health insurance was recorded by Victoria and District Trades and Labor Council, meeting Wednesday night. The council also declined to recognize any future panel in the future in connection with the operation of the act until such time as labor is informed that it is to receive as benefits from the act.

The council will communicate with the board of industrial relations and the Oak Bay Municipal Council concerning placing of arrears of water accounts on Oak Bay tax bills and ascertain legal rights of taxpayers. It was stated one taxpayer in Oak Bay was in danger of losing his home because of water rate arrears being placed as taxes.

MARITIME STRIKE

Endorsement was given to actions of maritime strikers in the International Longshoremen's Association. The council also commended the action of the Provincial Legislature in connection with the Trade Union Act.

The council will investigate a report that longshore pickets here had been refused relief by the authorities for participating in the establishment of picket lines.

Another big pseudo-religious Shinto sect has fallen foul of the Japanese Government according to the Tokyo correspondent of The Christian Century, who says that authorities are greatly concerned that so many false and dangerous doctrines are springing up within the fold of Japan's Shinto faith.

The banner cult is Hito no Mien, "The Way of Man," which has a million or more adherents.

Little Stories for Bedtime

What Ol' Mistah Buzzard Saw
—By THORSTON W. BURGESS

Ol' Mistah Buzzard looking down from high up in the blue blue sky was anxious. Yes, sir, Ol' Mistah Buzzard was very anxious. He wanted to do something. He didn't know what to do, and so he just did nothing but float round and round up in the blue blue sky watching for something to happen.

Ol' Mistah Buzzard was sure of it too, and it was this that troubled him so. If Ol' Mistah Coyote had been anywhere above ground he could have found him and given him warning. But he wasn't above ground. He was down in his house underground. Mistah Buzzard knew because he saw him go there just before old Granny Fox led Bossey there. And now there was no way of getting down to him. Mistah Buzzard didn't dare drop down on the ground so as to stick his head in at one of the doorways and warn him, because he was afraid of those legs himself. So there he sat, watching for something to happen that he could do but wait and watch.

DEMAND ARREST OF RIGHTISTS

Communists Blame Former Premier Tardieu and Two Others for Suicide

PARIS, Nov. 19 (AP)—The Communist party tonight demanded the arrest of former Premier Andre Tardieu and two other prominent Rightists whom the party blamed for the suicide of Roger Salengro, Minister of the Interior.

The Communists held them responsible for attacks on Salengro's war record, which Leftists believed caused him to kill himself Tuesday night.

The political bureau of the Communist party urged charges be brought against Tardieu, Horace Caruella, editor of the Rightist weekly Grangore, and against his son-in-law, Jean Chape, former chief of the Paris police.

While a fresh flurry of strikes brought new worries to the Popular Front Government, Premier Blum ordered a judicial inquiry into the suicide.

A general walkout of Lille metal workers and 1,200 coal miners at Bethune was called in protest against discharge of union members. At Bordeaux, 2,000 workers participated in a general strike of dock workers which halted unloading of cargo from ships.

Poppy Campaign Nets $3,585 for Aid of Veterans

Final figure on the recent poppy campaign conducted for disabled veterans and their dependents were announced by the Remembrance Day committee of ex-servicemen and women, last night.

The total sum collected was $3,585.85; $1,317.90 was received from the sale of poppies on Poppy Day; $12.93 from Christ Church Cathedral; $2,185.02 from the sale of sprays and wreaths, etc., and a special donation of $10.

Thunder Rolls Over Sea of Faces

The Piazza del Duomo in Milan, Italy, is an unbroken sea of upturned faces as Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy delivers his bitter indictment of the League of Nations, and his warning and appeal to England to join Italy in a Mediterranean pact. Il Duce's speech on this occasion was echoed throughout the diplomatic corridors of Europe as he touched point after point in Italy's foreign policy with utmost candor.

At the Theatres

McLaglen Stars in Great Drama

Plays Role of Big Steve Andrews in Dominion Theatre's "Magnificent Brute"

A tremendous man, big as all outdoors, attracts the admiring glances of most women. That is the case with Big Steve Andrews, who is a fool for blondes in assorted sizes and wholesale lots. He is a large fellow with an enormous appetite.

Big Steve, "The Magnificent Brute," is a maker of steel, accustomed to the roar and glow and showering sparks of the flaming molten metal, but not accustomed to the wiles of women. Victor McLaglen portrays the character of Steve, starring in Universal's "The Magnificent Brute," which opens today at the Dominion Theatre.

The story is taken from Owen Francis' "Big," which ran in Liberty.

ATLAS The new catchy songs THEATRE for "Stage Struck," now at the Atlas Theatre, are "Fancy Meeting You," and "In Your Own Quiet Way." They are sung by Dick Powell, Jeanne Madden and the Three Cheers, radio trio.

CAPITOL "Nine Days a Queen," THEATRE showing at the Capitol Theatre for the last times today, opens with the death of Henry VIII. The story carries on from where its distinguished predecessor, "The Private Life of Henry VIII," left off. Henry's death brings his son, Edward, a boy in his teens, to the throne of England. "Nine Days a Queen" is the first directorial achievement of Robert Stevenson, and his work has been hailed as masterly.

COLUMBIA "Heroes of the Range," THEATRE currently featured at the Columbia Theatre, is Ken Maynard's latest starring vehicle. The picture is a six-episode stampede of surprises as Maynard rides into sudden death, defies a swirling stampede of maddened horses to round up Prairie cowboys.

OAK BAY The Paxton Sisters, THEATRE radio entertainers, sing a hit song number, "Breathes There a Man," in the new Fox picture, "Every Saturday Night," currently at the Oak Bay Theatre. June Lang and Thomas Beck are the featured players in the comedy-drama of a typical American home.

PLAZA Una Merkel's entire THEATRE "real" life changed when she was assigned her latest screen role in "It's in the Air," the feature attraction at the Plaza Theatre. She forms a new film team with Jack Benny.

Shipping Strike News Is Featured in Colonist Reel

WITH the big shipping strike headlined news in the current papers, the scenes shown in The Colonist-Universal newsreel are up to the minute. Pickets and workers clash, police battle to keep order, and tension reigns on the waterfront at San Francisco and New York, typifying the coast-to-coast nature of the tie-up which has paralyzed waterborne commerce for the past week.

Other shots show the big football game of the year at Toronto, when Toronto Varsity defeated McGill in a thrilling game. The British army in training; a big parade of Mussolini's tank corps, the wreckage of a terrible train crash in New Jersey and scenes from the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary celebrations in Upper Derby, Pa.

Twelve Long Years in the Wood

"All over Scotland," said Johnnie Walker, "fine whiskies are maturing year by year, waiting to give, when skilfully blended, that roundness and harmony which has always been a distinctive feature of Johnnie Walker Black Label."

"Only whisky that has matured for twelve long years in the wood is used in the blending of Johnnie Walker Black Label—whisky that has developed depth and body and flavour."

MCLARNIN TO FACE AMBERS THIS EVENING

Vancouver Belter Remains Favorite to Defeat Lightweight Champion

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Jimmy McLarnin, Vancouver Irishman and former welterweight champion, will make the second start in his comeback campaign tomorrow night when he takes on Lou Ambers, king of the lightweights, in a ten-round engagement in Madison Square Garden.

McLarnin's experience, superior punching and a ten-pound weight advantage have made him an 8-to-5 favorite with the money players, with plenty of Ambers takers.

Against McLarnin's ring generalship and hitting ability, Ambers will pit youth, speed and a busy, if not deadly two-fisted attack.

SECOND START

It will be Ambers' second start since winning the crown from Tony Canzoneri in September. Three weeks ago he dropped an over-weight decision to Eddie Cool in Philadelphia.

McLarnin has been idle since he decisively defeated Canzoneri last month.

Barney Ross, welterweight champion, who defends his title against Izzy Jannazzo on November 27, has signed an agreement with Madison Square Garden to meet the McLarnin-Ambers winner, regardless of the result of the Jannazzo bout.

Tomorrow night's semi-final will be a ten-rounder between Enrico Ventura, Italian lightweight star, and Davey Day, of Chicago, a stable mate of Ross.

THREE FOOTBALL MATCHES CARDED

Sunday School Football League fixtures carded tomorrow are as follows:

J.B.A.A.—McInnes, Buxton, Fleming, Brown, Langdon, Halkett, Stipe, Croft, Peard, Mair, Tobin, Ruitan, Burns, Usher and Simpson.

Centennial vs. St. Aidan's, Central Park, referee, F. Tooby.

St. Alban's vs. Lake Hill Mission, Spencer's Park, referee, H. Tooby. Kick-offs at 2 o'clock.

The present standing of the clubs follows:

Centennial P. W. L. D. P. 8 4 2 2 10
Lake Hill Mission 7 3 3 1 7
Metropolitan 4 3 1 0 6
St. Aidan's 4 2 1 1 5
St. Alban's 6 1 3 2 4

Teaching British Boys Ice Pastime

England, hockey-minded now and with its puck teams packed with Canadian players, is trying to solve the problem of future talent by training British youngsters in the ways of hockey. At Earl's Court, one of London's great ice centres, school boys are being coached by "Babe" Donnelly, former National Hockey League star, who handles Earl's Court Rangers, and the Canuck veteran is here seen giving a lesson in goalkeeping to M. Woolf, a Streatham boy. The boys are supplied with equipment and coaching free of charge by the established London hockey clubs.

Celtic Will Meet Third Lanark in Main Match

Second Place Eleven Faces Strong Opposition in Scottish Soccer Tomorrow—Portsmouth Will Take On Everton Squad

GLASGOW, Nov. 19.—Three of the ten First Division Scottish Football League games carded this week-end will be played in Glasgow, and all "Devils" promise to produce real battles.

Perhaps the best game—from a playing point of view—is scheduled for Parkhead, home of the runner-up, Celtic. The Celts, champions last year, will meet Third Lanark, one of the most dangerous clubs in the circuit.

Unbeaten in fifteen starts, Glasgow Rangers entertain St. Johnstone at Ibrox Park. The euphorics have had many close calls, but it isn't likely St. Johnstone will have the honor of halting their upward drive.

The only amateur club in the league, Queen's Park, is faced with the formidable task of taking the points from the fifth-position Hearts at Hampden Park. The amateurs are also expected to be a menace to any club in the loop.

Although Sunderland's home record is unblemished, the team appeared shaky in away games at the start of the season. Recently its players have been at the top of their art.

Arsonal seems to have recovered some of its old brilliance and now stands in ninth place. On Saturday the Gunners entertain Middlesbrough, and victory would carry them further up the league table.

Copping returns to the left-half position and Bastin, versatile international, is expected to appear at right-half, where he made a good impression last week.

A sound defence and resourceful attack so far has kept Bury at the top of the Second Division, but the Lancastrians have a hard fight against Bradford City, at Bradford. The City, in twentieth position, is making a desperate effort to avoid relegation at the end of the season.

Aston Villa still has a good chance of regaining First Division status and should succeed against Blackburn Rovers at Villa Park.

JACK TO PLAY

David Jack, one of the greatest inside forwards the game has known, will probably return as a player on Saturday after an absence of two and a half years. The former Arsenal star is now manager of Southend United in the Southern Section of the Third Division, and is seeking permission to file up against Bristol City. He has been training for several weeks.

Luton Town, leader of the Southern Section has a hard fight against Millwall, but Chester, at the top of the Northern Section, should have no difficulty against Accrington Stanley.

BILLIARDS

With Eddie Newman and Johnny Gow turning in victories, the Tiliu Club scored a two-to-one triumph over the Elks in the senior Division of the City Billiards League this week. Newman took the measure of Evan Edwards by fourteen points, while Gow, playing a smart defensive game, beat out "Toots" Plump by forty points, thus gaining revenge for the setback he registered last week. Percy Fitzsimmons registered the lone Elks victory by beating Fred Smith by a comfortable margin.

Chicago grappler, who meets Donald McIntyre, Scottish heavyweight, tomorrow evening in one half of the double main event of the weekly squirm fest at the Tiliu Club Gymnasium. Harry Kent, who made such a good showing against Saeed Sabo, handsome Hungarian, and Donald Noland, 210-pound Texan, will meet in the other half of the twin bill.

Noland will be making his first appearance in Victoria. Louie Newman, Victoria heavyweight, and Celia Seale, Iowa "Gorilla Man," are booked for the five six-minute round special event. A local preliminary will open the show at 8:45 o'clock.

JOHNNY GAGNON NETS WINNING MARKER IN MONTREAL'S VICTORY

Breaks Up Battle Against Americans to Give Flying Frenchmen 3-2 Decision—Patrick's Squad Blanks Wings, 1-0—Maroons Skate to 4-0 Win Over the Chicago Black Hawks

MONTREAL, Nov. 19.—Montreal Canadiens handed Americans their first defeat, of the National Hockey League season tonight, winning from the New York Rangers 3-2 on a third period goal by Johnny Gagnon.

Previously, the Canadiens consolidated Canadian position in second place of the Canadian section, two points behind the leading Americans.

Of the six penalties meted out the Rangers earned five, including a ten-minute misconduct sentence to Neil Colville for arguing with Referee Mickey Ion.

MAROONS BLANK HAWKS

CHICAGO, Nov. 19.—Montreal Maroons won their first game of the 1936 National Hockey League season tonight, shutting out the Chicago Black Hawks, 4-0, before 10,000 fans.

Alex Connell, veteran Maroon goalie, was the outstanding star of the fast, rough game. He kicked out a shot after shot and kept the Chicago in check during a furious third period drive.

Earl Robinson, opening the scoring, took a pass in front of the Hawk net halfway through the first period and rifled the rubber home as Jackson was serving a penalty for holding. The pass was from Coachman. Then Marker scored with a shot from the left wing.

In the final period when the Chicagoans became too intent on attacking the Maroons, slipped out and got two more goals.

Cain raced down with Marker and Grace and as passes drew the Chicago defence over, Cain got around left wing and shot into the far corner. Then, Grace, soaked down for the final goal, beating Karkava with a shot from left wing.

A.A.U. MEETING HEARS OLYMPIC GAMES REPORT

Discussion Over Handling of Team Heard at Regina

Delegates From All Parts of Canada Told of Doings in Berlin During Olympiad—Walter Hardwick Faces Meeting With Basketball Problems—Secretary Praises McKinnon

BY CHARLES EDWARDS
Canadian Press Staff Writer
REGINA, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Considerable discussion was pending tonight on the report of the Canadian Olympic committee, presented to the annual meeting of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada today by Secretary J. H. Crocker, London, Ont.

The report sought to refute criticism of the committee following the Berlin Olympiad. Its presentation aroused a storm of discussion and, after President W. A. Fry had attempted vainly to bring the questions to a head, the report was submitted to the resolutions committee for consideration.

Walter Hardwick, of Vancouver, president of the Canadian Amateur Basketball Association, faced the meeting with another controversial problem, stating he had a mandate from his association for withdrawal from the A.A.U., unless the cage body's grievances concerning articles of alliance were settled immediately.

There has been too much vague innuendo levelled at the committee and its motives, rather than definite charges and in cases where criticism has been definite, there have been many misstatements, Mr. Crocker stated.

He cited instances of criticism, though not outlining what that criticism had been. Any dissatisfaction with Olympic hockey was the responsibility of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, and not the committee, because the association "had asked" the report said.

Charges of "alleged looseness" in the handling of ocean tickets had been levelled through a glaring disregard of facts. The report said Charles Campbell, Toronto sculler, had purchased his own transportation to Berlin. Bob Grainger, of Vancouver, personal coach of Sprinter Howie McPhee, had no connection with the Olympic committee, or the Canadian team, and had gone to Berlin independently.

"It has been said that Pease (Tryon Pease, Toronto middleweight boxer) made definite statements about the treatment he received. Pease could not compete and was sent home because he was many pounds overweight for his class, but in any event at the meeting of the Central Ontario branch, the one man who knew about every detail in Pease's case, C. E. L. Higinbotham, was present, and we submit that to him as manager of the boxing team, and not to the Olympic committee, should have been directed anything that needed explanation."

WAS MISQUOTED
The report said Mrs. W. E. Stirling, Halifax, "must have been misquoted in statements attributed to her because she was a member of the selection committee for women, and through an association of several weeks, we never heard a complaint from her re the team's personnel."

After the report was read Mrs. Stirling took the floor to reiterate a statement she said was the one in question: "I do not believe we had our best girls at Berlin."

Later she explained she believed the starter for track events at the Olympic trials at Montreal had disqualified so many athletes for false starts in early heats that the best girls athletes had not reached the finals.

The Crocker report continued: "Your officers deeply regret the attack which officers of the Central Ontario Branch saw fit to launch at A. E. Cro (Winnipeg), manager of the track team. The success of the 1936 Olympic track squad amply refutes the fault finding."

The suggestion, as quoted in a daily newspaper's report of the meeting of the Ontario branch that a speaker had said Dan McKenzie had forced last minute changes in appointments of Olympic officials in an absolute myth.

PRaises McKinnon
"If Archie McKinnon" was referred to, we want you to know that he is a highly regarded Y.M.C.A. physical director in Victoria, and the finest reports came from the West regarding him."

"Slighting references" to Leo Burns, Montreal, wrestling team manager, were referred to. "The latter had with him, Frank Saxon, recognized as one of the most competent wrestling coaches in Canada."

In his presidential address earlier, Mr. Fry had said the Canadian Olympic Team. "In dress, deportment and athletic achievement were a distinct credit to Canada."

Two resolutions for reorganization of the Olympic committee are before the meeting. The Central Ontario Branch proposes a special committee be set up to study possible reorganization "in view of the dissatisfaction and criticism" of the committee.

The Eastern Ontario Branch proposes committee reorganization "to make it more thoroughly representative of the people of Canada."

The Basketball Association report dealt chiefly with differences between the cage body and the Canadian Secondary Schools Association, governing high school sports, chiefly operative in Ontario.

B. C. BRANCH CHARGED
The report charged the British Columbia Branch of the Amateur Union with "various reasons or alibis" had prevented the British Columbia Basketball Association from having a voice in registration matters. The C.B.A. requested the meeting to instruct the British Columbia Branch to accept a basketball nomination on its executive committee.

Some return to allied sports of the union of revenue from registration fees was sought.

Acceptance of executives of each allied sport as registration committee was also urged.

"We are paying heavily to an organization which does nothing for us," the report stated.

"Until such times as branches of basketball are properly remunerated for cost of enforcing amateur cards and until more control of registering athletes is vested in allied deputy registration committees the C.B.A. will enforce cards only to the extent that it is not out of pocket over enforcement."

GARDEN MAY HELP FIGHT

Madison Square Officials To Be Co-Promoters Of Big Bout

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—(AP)—Instead of offering a stumbling block, Madison Square Garden may wind up in the cheering section for the proposed no-decision bout between James J. Braddock and Joe Louis in Atlantic City.

The Garden indicated today it is ready to play ball if the right sort of deal can be made with the co-promoters, Mike Jacobs, of New York and Herman Taylor of Philadelphia.

This became known after Jacobs talked with Col. John Reed Killpatrick, offering to make the Garden a co-promoter and cut it in for a third of the profits.

BRADDOCK CONFIDENT
DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 19.—(AP)—James J. Braddock hoisted a pair of "brand new dukes" for inspection tonight—and quietly assured his listeners that Madison Square Garden need not worry.

He'll take Joe Louis like General Grant handled the Richmond incident, said the confident heavy-weight champion. Then he'll put up his title for Maxie Schmeling in June.

Braddock trim and rugged at 195 pounds, said he would leave Dallas immediately after refereeing a fight tonight and return to Hot Springs, Ark., for the finishing touches of a treatment he said had chased traces of arthritis from his hands.

The champion was eager to hear the latest developments from New York, where efforts to clinch a proposed scrap with Joe Louis at Atlantic City in February are being made.

In his presidential address earlier, Mr. Fry had said the Canadian Olympic Team. "In dress, deportment and athletic achievement were a distinct credit to Canada."

There should be no next time. Any referee who will do to spoil a game at the outset by ruthless whistling for fouls will find that there will be no next time. This man can do more than all the officials put together towards improving the standard of play, for when all thoughts of getting a man or getting revenge are put aside, players will play football.

It is quite possible to pick out over half a dozen local players who never bother about roughing it up with men who just get on with the game and play it. These men are popular with all fans, irrespective of what club they support, and these are our most consistent players. My remarks do not apply in these cases.

But there are others, fullbacks in particular, who, annoyed by the persistent bustling efforts of the opposing forwards, never let slip an opportunity of man-handling an onrushing forward. These culprits have all the advantage of the referee. They generally pull off their stunt during a melee in front of goal, or whenever there are five or six players bunched together in such a way that the referee cannot possibly recognize every foot, every elbow, and every knee in the crowd.

There are forwards, too, who in their eagerness to score on a concerted rush, do not hesitate to run blind into a defender's back before the actual arrival of the ball. Retaliation becomes the order of the day, and in a short time a game is spoilt as far as the finer points are considered. None of these men ever make really consistent players, look watched from behind a goal, I counted no less than thirty unfair tricks. Some were actually dangerous, while all were of the type that breeds bad blood. The great majority could not possibly have been spotted by any referee, but the few that were glaring, yet unpunished should have been checked both for the good of the individual and for that of the game. Referees need have no fear of strong backing, for I understand that disciplinary matters are to be handled by a strong committee of neutral men.

West's are still further ahead in the league race, and it does not seem as though any club is strong enough to head them off. But it is a pity that they are not stronger numerically, for it was running a great risk to play Bell on Saturday, suffering as he was, even though they did manage later to bind up his ribs with swaddling clothes. Let's hope no harm came of the few knocks he took.

There is no doubt that Victoria's strength this year lies entirely in the forward and halfback lines. We have several fullbacks who are just on the verge of being good fullbacks. They have an abundance of grit and staying power but they lack finish in their kicking shows lamentable lack of practice, while their covering tactics are weak to a degree our coaches are not getting the protection that they deserve.

Just a few personal! On Wednesday and again on Saturday, Bell and Payne proved that we have the best two wing men seen on the island for many a year. Lorrain is one of the most improved men in local ball. Morgan is doing his speed in a way that he has not done for a couple of seasons. Barnes is

I am very much afraid that the word used should be "foul" for the roughness complained of consists mainly of elbowing, hacking, sliding, tackling, jumping, and such unnecessary kicking. None would blame any referee for not seeing all infractions of the rules, but none can deny that some referees are apt to let too much go, probably making a mental note that they will check up this or that player next time.

I am very much afraid that the word used should be "foul" for the roughness complained of consists mainly of elbowing, hacking, sliding, tackling, jumping, and such unnecessary kicking. None would blame any referee for not seeing all infractions of the rules, but none can deny that some referees are apt to let too much go, probably making a mental note that they will check up this or that player next time.

There should be no next time. Any referee who will do to spoil a game at the outset by ruthless whistling for fouls will find that there will be no next time. This man can do more than all the officials put together towards improving the standard of play, for when all thoughts of getting a man or getting revenge are put aside, players will play football.

Lewis Meets Len Harvey

make really consistent players, look watched from behind a goal, I counted no less than thirty unfair tricks. Some were actually dangerous, while all were of the type that breeds bad blood. The great majority could not possibly have been spotted by any referee, but the few that were glaring, yet unpunished should have been checked both for the good of the individual and for that of the game. Referees need have no fear of strong backing, for I understand that disciplinary matters are to be handled by a strong committee of neutral men.

West's are still further ahead in the league race, and it does not seem as though any club is strong enough to head them off. But it is a pity that they are not stronger numerically, for it was running a great risk to play Bell on Saturday, suffering as he was, even though they did manage later to bind up his ribs with swaddling clothes. Let's hope no harm came of the few knocks he took.

There is no doubt that Victoria's strength this year lies entirely in the forward and halfback lines. We have several fullbacks who are just on the verge of being good fullbacks. They have an abundance of grit and staying power but they lack finish in their kicking shows lamentable lack of practice, while their covering tactics are weak to a degree our coaches are not getting the protection that they deserve.

It is quite possible to pick out over half a dozen local players who never bother about roughing it up with men who just get on with the game and play it. These men are popular with all fans, irrespective of what club they support, and these are our most consistent players. My remarks do not apply in these cases.

But there are others, fullbacks in particular, who, annoyed by the persistent bustling efforts of the opposing forwards, never let slip an opportunity of man-handling an onrushing forward. These culprits have all the advantage of the referee. They generally pull off their stunt during a melee in front of goal, or whenever there are five or six players bunched together in such a way that the referee cannot possibly recognize every foot, every elbow, and every knee in the crowd.

There are forwards, too, who in their eagerness to score on a concerted rush, do not hesitate to run blind into a defender's back before the actual arrival of the ball. Retaliation becomes the order of the day, and in a short time a game is spoilt as far as the finer points are considered. None of these men ever

HORTON SMITH GAINS GREAT GOLF VICTORY

Stages Brilliant Rally to Defeat Willie Goggin in P.G.A. Tourney

BY BOB CAVANAGH
Associated Press Sports Writer
PINEHURST, N.C., Nov. 19.—(AP)—It was the calm after the storm today in the professional golfers' championship. There was nothing even faintly reminiscent of the tumult of the hole-in-one launched of the hole-in-one yesterday, but the third round, played at thirty-six holes, was a touch of with a rousing rally by Horton Smith to stave off elimination and join seven others in the quarter final.

Smith knocked the stuffing out of Old Man Par, overcame a five-hole deficit as late as the twenty-second and wound up beating rugged Willie Goggin, of San Bruno, Calif., 2 and 1.

It was easily the high spot of an otherwise tame day, a day in which there was no outstanding favorites except Harold McGowan, of Winchester, Mass., who after his triumph over Defending Champion Johnny Revolta, was a heavy favorite to win the P.G.A. title.

McGowan's third straight victory gained him a bracket in the round of eight opposite broad-shouldered Jimmy Thomson, of Shawnee-on-Delaware, Pa., who sprang a mid surprise by polishing off Henry Picard, Hershey, Pa., 4 and 2.

The six other quarter-finalists are Craig Wood, from Deal, N.J., Tony McSpaden's third straight victory gained him a bracket in the round of eight opposite broad-shouldered Jimmy Thomson, of Shawnee-on-Delaware, Pa., who sprang a mid surprise by polishing off Henry Picard, Hershey, Pa., 4 and 2.

TOONERVILLE FOLKS

A black and white photograph of a wooden structure, possibly a bridge or a large gate, with a sign that reads "COONERVILLE FOLKS". The structure is made of vertical wooden posts and horizontal beams. The sign is a rectangular board with the text "COONERVILLE FOLKS" in capital letters. The background is a light, textured surface.

THE TUTTS ... By Crawford Young

Jane Dixon Says:

A MAN, WHO IS UNREASONABLY JEALOUS OF HIS WIFE, PAYS HER ONLY TEN DOLLARS A WEEK FOR SHARING THE RESPONSIBILITY OF CONDUCTING HIS BUSINESS. WITH THIS AMOUNT HE EXPECTS HER TO BUY ALL HER CLOTHES AND HIRE A COOK.

Dear Miss Dixon: I'm twenty-six and have been married for three years to a man ten years older than myself.

We have few difficulties, except that he is very high-tempered and occasionally drinks to excess.

I try never to cross him. He is terribly jealous of me—in fact, he can scarcely bear the thought of my going to my mother's or sister's homes to spend the day.

I idolize him, but sometimes, when I think it all over, I almost hate him.

We are not wealthy by any means, though we have a comfortable living. We have our own business. I do all the office work and attend to things when he is incapable of doing so. He attends to the outside work, which gives him plenty of time to spend with his friends or as he chooses. I'm in the office ten hours each day, and more if business requires.

When the day's work is over I positively can not get him to go with me to a show or among our friends. He has to go to town and meet his cronies.

He allows me to take ten dollars a week for my work in the office. From this amount I must pay my cook—he insists I have a cook, but will not pay for one himself—my clothing, and my incidental expenses.

HUSBAND IS GENEROUS TO HIMSELF
Ten dollars would not begin to pay a clerk in the office, as the position requires someone with experience in the business and also it entails a lot of responsibility. I had seven years' experience on this same job before I married him and have proved, in a like term, my worthiness to accept responsibility.

On the other hand, expense means nothing to him when he wants something. At such times the sky is the limit. Even if I ask for money to buy furniture for our apartment, which never has been completed, he'll tell me to buy it myself with my money.

His life insurance policy names as beneficiary his mother, who is well along in her seventies and who draws a war pension. The mother also owns real estate, which will be divided among his brothers and sisters.

If I attempt to discuss the matter with him he walks away. Real estate which we bought together since our marriage he has managed to have transferred to his mother.

Some time ago we incorporated our business, and later I learned he had put all of the shares, including our personal ones, and our automobile, into the estate of his mother and brother. I happen to have discovered that in his last will and testament he has left me less than one-tenth of our estate. Everything he has, including his personal effects, goes to his mother and her heirs.

Still, he professes to love me. He's always afraid I'll find some one I care for more than I care for him.

Often I think of taking what I have and going my own way. Still I hope that some day he will realize his mistake and be regular. Please try to advise me.—Troubled.

WIFE SHOULD PROTECT HERSELF

Answer: I will guarantee that no one in all this world hates conflict more than I. At the same time I realize that to avoid conflict at the expense of justice and of self-respect is the worst sort of cowardice.

You are a partner in your husband's business. If you failed to get an equity in the business under the incorporation that is your fault. You should have demanded an interest commensurate with your service.

I fear that you have a good head, but a weak spine.

For the protection of your future which you are now building, you should see to it that you receive a just share in the business.

No honest man has ever lost interest in or respect for a working woman because she insisted upon receiving a just compensation for her work.

Forget about your husband's estate. The court will take care of that if the occasion arises. If he thinks so little of you as his wife that he does not protect you to the financial extent he is able to manage, you be strong and self-respecting enough to protect yourself from this day on. The money you earn belongs to you, and it is his business to supply the expenses of the home and of your living. You're his wife. Don't allow him to forget that.

Put your ten dollars a week in the bank from now on and never touch a cent of it, for there will come a time unless your husband becomes a regular partner, when you will need that bank account.

PROGRESS OF MUSIC SHOWN

Mrs. Hedden Gillespie Addresses Music Teachers' Association Here

Illustrated with a fine series of gramophone records, the talk given by Mrs. Hedden Gillespie, on the history of music in England was a feature of yesterday's meeting of the Victoria Music Teachers' Association. Starting with Druidical times, Mrs. Gillespie traced the growth of folk music first. She told something about the chanting of Scriptural text by the monks before the invention of the musical staff, which was developed between the ninth and twelfth centuries. All music at that time was still in vocal form. In 1300 the Tudor kings composed music for the Latin texts, with the addition of small organ parts. England, the speaker claimed, had contributed more to the development of the anthem singing by boy choristers than any other country, and had contributed much to the development and improvement of both the organ and the piano.

Among the gramophone records played was one illustrating the chanting by monks in the English monasteries of very early times, and other records traced choral singing right up to the present day, one of the finest being a record of the choir in the Chapel Royal during the late King's jubilee celebration last year.

GREETINGS TENDERED
Greetings were brought to yesterday's meeting, at which the president, Reginald Cox, presided, from Roy Robertson, of Vancouver, provincial secretary, wishing the local branch success in the ensuing season.

It was proposed that the association hold a Christmas party this year, and after discussion, Wednesday, December 30, was selected as the date for this event, which will be held in the Y.W.C.A. parlors. Entertainment and refreshment committees were appointed.

The association's next joint-pupils recital will be held on Friday, December 4, and programmes and tickets were distributed, and members asked to do everything in their power to make the event a success because of the objective, viz., the scholarship fund.

FAMOUS EMERALD GOES TO MUSEUM

Largest of Samples From Brazilian Mines Is Loaned to London For Showing

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Trustees of the British Museum have acquired on loan from the Duke of Devonshire for exhibition in the mineral gallery of the Natural History Museum the "Devonshire" emerald, which was given to the sixth duke by Pedro I, Emperor of Brazil, who came to Europe after his abdication in 1831.

LARGEST CRYSTAL
This famous stone is the largest known crystal of emerald from the famous mines of Minas, Boyaca, Colombia. Hexagonal in shape, it measures about two inches in length and the same in cross-section, and weighs 276.8 grams, or nearly ten ounces. Its color is the deep grass-green characteristic of the true emerald. Like nearly all the material from these mines, it is extensively flawed.

A blow has caused a fracture across one corner, with the result that if the crystal be illuminated from underneath, this sector receives no light and disappears from sight.

That Body of Yours

(By James W. Barton, M.D.)

THE SLEEP HABITS OF MEN OF DISTINCTION

It has been generally understood that as we get older we need less sleep—that a baby sleeps all the time and the old man or woman scarcely sleeps at all. That this idea is wrong has been shown by various research workers who state that older people really sleep longer than middle-aged or even those between twenty and thirty years of age.

I have spoken before of the Survey of the Sleep Habits of 509 Men of Distinction, as recorded by Dr. Donald Laird, Colgate University, in American Medicine, some five years ago. Among those on the list were governors of states, eminent writers, preachers, lawyers, physicians, and outstanding men in the business world. Dr. Laird found that "the older persons, on the average, sleep longer than the younger persons."

Thus the average sleeping time at age 25 was 7 hours and 25 minutes; at 35, 7 hours and 45 minutes; at 45, 7 hours and 50 minutes; at 55, 7 hours and 40 minutes; at 65, 7 hours and 45 minutes; at 75, 7 hours and 45 minutes; at 85, 8 hours and 10 minutes.

The fact that men of 45 need more sleep than those immediately younger or older, would indicate the special need for sleep at this, the most important age from the productive standpoint.

About 60 per cent of the group reported noticeable ill effects following a night of less than their usual quota of sleep—less active mentally; feeling of drowsiness; lack of pep; sleep in late afternoon; energy unimpaired; lacking in initiative; lack of strength; shaky, tired; drowsy in the early evening; creative ability on the wane; loss of keenness; not so clear-headed as usual; a little languor; eye trouble; irritable.

More than 70 per cent reported sufficient difficulty in going to sleep that they have developed special methods of coaxing sleep. These 33 per cent use what they call "thought control," not letting the mind work or think on anything in particular.
